An Act to amend Three Acts, made respectively in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, and in the First and Second Years and in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for the uniform Valuation of Lands and Tenements in the several Baronies, Parishes, and other Divisions of Counties in Ireland; and to provide for the more effectual Levy of Grand Jury Cens. [13th August 1834.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled An Act to make Provision for the uniform Valuation of Lands and Tenements in the several Baronies, Parishes, and other Divisions of Counties in Ireland, for the Purpose of the more equably levying of the Rates and Charges upon such Baronies, Parishes, and Divisions respectively; and the said Act was amended by Two Acts passed respectively in the First and Second Years and in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of His present Majesty: And whereas it is expedient, for the Acceleration of the said Valuation, and for other Purposes, that the said Act should be further amended: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioner of Valuation appointed in or for any County or Counties under the Provisions of the said recited Acts to nominate 1834. c. 54.

Commissioner of Valuation may appoint such Number of Valuers as the Lord

Electment shall fit and determine.

Committee of Appeal may, in several Cases, direct a new Valuation to be made, although an Appeal shall have been lodged in respect thereof.

When the Valuation of any Barony has been made and decided on, a List of the several Parishes and the Divisions of Land within them shall be prepared and published.

During the Period herein specified, the County Cens, &c. shall be taken according to the Provisions therein specified.

but not to affect the relative Proportions here by such Barony.

Respecting or made of revised Act an additional alteration of the Amount of Valuation of any Barony as compared with another Barony.

Committee of Revision may alter the Valuation of any Division and appoint such Number of Persons to be Valuers for each such County to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland shall from Time to Time fix and appoint; any thing in the said recited Acts limiting the Number of Persons so to be appointed to the contrary hereof notwithstanding.

II. And be it enacted, That where an Appeal shall have been made to any Committee of Appeal, under the Provisions of the said recited Acts, by or on behalf of any Parish, or the Owners or Occupiers of Land within any Township of any Parish, against the Valuation or any Part of the Valuation of the same, or of any other Parish or Township or Townlands within the same Barony, and it shall appear to such Committee of Appeal that just Cause has been shown to warrant such Committee to direct that a new Valuation shall be made of any such Parish or Parishes, Township or Townlands, in respect of or on behalf whereof such Appeal may have been made, then and in such Case it shall and may be lawful for the said Committee of Appeal, with the Consent of the Commissioner of Valuation for such County, or of his Assessor, to direct that a new Valuation shall in like Manner be made of any other Parish or Parishes, Township or Townlands, within the same Barony, the Valuation whereof shall appear to the said Committee to have been defective or erroneous in the same respects, or to which the same Ground of Appeal may appear justly applicable, although no such Appeal shall have been made in respect of or on behalf of such other Parish or Parishes, Township or Townlands.

III. And be it further enacted, That when and as the Valuation of each or any Barony within each County shall have been made by such Valuers, and transmitted to the Commissioner of Valuation for such County, and decided on by the Committee of Appeal appointed under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, the said Commissioner of Valuation shall prepare and make out, in the Form of the Schedule to this Act annexed, a List or Table of the several Parishes within such Barony, and of the several Townlands or other Sub-divisionations or Divisions of Land within each such Parish, distinguishing the Number of Acres contained in every such Parish and Township or other Sub-divisionation or Division as aforesaid, and the Value of the Land and Houses in each such Parish or Township, or other Sub-divisionation or Division respectively, according to the Survey and Valuation thereof as decided upon; and each such List or Table shall be signed by the said Commissioner of Valuation and Three Members of the said Committee of Appeal, and shall be transmitted, so signed, to the Office of the Chief Secretary of the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland; and thereupon it shall and may be lawful for such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors, if he or they shall so think fit, to direct such List and Valuation, so signed as aforesaid, to be published in the Dublin Gazette; and from and after the End of the Assize next ensuing the Day of such Publication, and until the End of the Assize next ensuing the Day on which the List and Valuation of all the Baronies within the same County, as completed and finally agreed on by the Committee of Revision appointed under the Provisions of the said recited Acts, shall have been published in the said Dublin Gazette in the Manner and Form by the said recited Acts prescribed, but no longer, all Grand Jury Rates, and the usual and accustomed Proportion of all County Cens Charges whatsoever, imposed or to be imposed on such Barony by Proportions of the Grand Jury, or to be raised off such Barony, or any Parish and Division thereof, and all Parish Rates imposed or to be imposed or levied off any Parish or Township or other Sub-divisionation or Division of such Barony, under the Authority of any Law or Statute, shall be assessed and levied off such Barony, and off every Parish, Township, or other Sub-divisionation or Division therein, according to the Proportions specified in such List and Valuation so to be agreed by the Commissioner of Valuation and Three Members of the Committee of Appeal, and published as herein-before directed.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Publication of the List and Valuation of any Barony under the Provisions of this Act shall not alter or affect the relative Proportion of County Cens or Charges which by any Laws or Usage may be or have been borne by such Barony as compared with any other Barony or Baronies.

V. And whereas it is enacted by the said recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, that in case it shall happen that any Committee of Revision shall alter the Amount of the Valuation of any Barony, as compared with another Barony, either by increasing or diminishing such Amount, such Alteration in the Valuation of any Barony shall not affect the proportionate Valuations of the several Parishes or Townlands within such Barony with respect to each other, but that the Valuation of each and every such Parish and Township respectively shall be altered so that such may bear to each the same relative Proportion as was originally fixed, or as was confirmed or allowed by the Committee of Appeal; And whereas it may happen that the Amount of Valuation of a Barony may be altered by the said Committee of Revision on a Parochial or for a Cause applicable to One or more Divisions of such Barony, and not to all Divisions of such Barony; and it is therefore necessary that Power should be given to such Committee to direct the Increase or Diminution of the Valuation of any Sub-divisionation or Division of a Barony as well as of the whole Barony; be it therefore enacted, That the herein-before recited Provisions of the said Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty shall be and the same is hereby repeated.

VI. And be it enacted, That whenever any such Committee of Revision shall think fit to alter the Amount of the Valuation of any Barony as compared with any other Barony it shall and may be lawful for them to alter the Amount of the Valuation of any Parish or Parishes, Township or Townlands, or other Division of such Barony, and the Proportion originally fixed or confirmed or allowed by the Committee of Appeal of such Barony between the several Parishes and Townlands of such Barony, in such Manner and to such Extent as the said Committee shall think just with regard to the Reason or Principle on which the gross Amount of the Valuation of such Barony may have been altered by them.

VII. And be it enacted, That all fractional Parts of a Pound Sterling may be rejected from the total Value of any Barony, Parish, Manor, or other Denomination as stated in any List and Valuation prepared under Authority of the said recited Acts or this Act, for the Purpose of computing the Proportions in which the same shall be respectively rated.

VIII. And whereas it is desirable that the said Valuation should be made available to the Purpose of Apportionment, as well as to ascertain the Proportions in which Grand Jury Cess and Parish Rates shall be assessed upon the several Divisions and Subdivisions of each County; be it therefore enacted, That when and as soon as the Valuation of all the Parishes within any Barony shall be completed the Commissioners of Valuation shall make out a Copy of the Field Book of each Parish, and shall make out a Field Map, showing the several Portions of Land which may have been separately valued, and distinguishing and numbering the same as to correspond with the said Field Book; and the said Commissioners shall deliver such Copies of the Field Book and Maps, attested by his Signature, to the Treasurer of the County, who shall keep the same in his Office, there to remain open to public Inspection; and any Owner or Occupier of Land within such Parish shall be at Liberty to make Copies thereof or Extracts therefrom without Fee or Reward.

IX. And be it enacted, That every such Treasurer shall furnish Copies of such Field Books, as and when the Valuation therein contained shall have been confirmed or amended and finally agreed on by the said Committee of Appeal and Revision respectively of such County, in manner by the said recited Acts or by this Act provided, and of such Field Maps, marked and numbered to correspond with such Field Books, to any Person or Persons requiring the same for the Apportionment of Grand Jury Cess; and such Copies shall be prepared under such Regulations as the Grand Jury of such County shall fix and determine, and they shall present, to be raised off the Townland or other Denomination of Land to which such Copies shall relate, the Expense of making the same.

X. Provided always, and be it enacted, That when and as soon as the Valuation of all the Baronies within any County shall have been completed, and that the List of the said several Baronies and the Valuation thereof shall have been confirmed or amended, and finally agreed on by the Committee of Revision of such County, the same shall be signed, sealed with, and published in manner and Form by the said recited Acts prescribed, and nothing in this Act contained shall, save as respects the additional Power which the Committee of Revision may exercise under the Provisions herein-before made, extend to, vary, or affect the Proceedings by the said recited Acts directed in respect of such general Valuations of all the Baronies within any County, and the List thereof, when published in manner by such Acts directed, shall have all such Force and Effect as the same would have had if this Act had not been made.

XI. And be it enacted, That at the Second Session next ensuing the Publication of such List and Valuation of all the Baronies of such County the Grand Jury shall nominate and appoint a Time for the Re-assembly of the Committee of Revision of such County, and the Secretary of the Grand Jury shall give Notice of the Time appointed for such Re-assembly of the Committee of Revision in like Manner as the Clerk of the Peace is by the said recited Act required to give Notice of the First Meeting of such Committee, and as the Time so appointed the Members of such Committee of Revision, together with the Commissioner of Valuation or his Assessor, shall meet in the Court-house of such County, and shall there and then inquire into and determine all such Complaints as shall be made against the said Valuation, or any Part thereof, and it shall be lawful for the said Committee to revise and amend such Valuation as in them may seem just, or to direct a new Valuation when the same shall appear necessary, and to adjourn from Time to Time; and the Valuation, as finally amended, revised, and settled by such Committee, shall be in the Place and Stead of the former Valuation so published in the Diallel Gaxet, and of like Force and Effect: Provided always, that Notice in Writing of any Complaint which it is intended to prefer to the said Committee so re-assembled shall be given to the Commissioner of Valuation of such County, or some Member of the said Committee, at least Thirty-one Days before the Time appointed for the re-assembling of such Committee, and that such Notice shall be subscribed by at least Two Persons each paying Grand Jury Cess to the Amount of Forty Shillings, or by at least Two Persons having each a Freehold or Leasehold Estate in Lands or Tenements of the annual Value of Twenty Pounds or upwards, and situate in such County, County of a City, or County of a Town.

XII. And whereas it is expedient, for the more complete Uniformity of the said Valuation, that the same should be carried on under the Control and Direction of a single Commissioner of Valuation, and that the Salary of Five hundred Pounds per Annum authorized by the said recited Act of the Seventh Year of His late Majesty's Reign to be paid to each such Commissioner to an insufficient Reimbursement for a Person appointed to act as such Commissioner in many Counties; be it therefore enacted, That, in addition to the said Salary of Five hundred Pounds per Annum, it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland to order and direct such Allowance for travelling and other Expenses, not exceeding One Guinea per Day for every Day during which the Barony, or well as of the whole.

Provision of a Pound may be rejected, &c.

When Valuation of Barony is completed, Commissioner to make a Copy of Field Book and a Field Map in Office of Secretary of County.

Treasurer to furnish Copies of Field Books to Persons requiring same for Apportionment of Grand Jury Cess.

Not to affect Provisions of recited Acts with respect to Publications of List when Valuation of all the Baronies within any County are completed.

At Second Session next after Publication of such List and Valuation, Grand Jury to fix a Time for Re-assembly of Committee of Revision to finally settle Valuations.

Notice of Complaints intended to be preferred to be given by Two Persons at least 31 Days previously.

Lord Lieutenant may order an Allowance for travelling Expenses to Commissioner of Valuation, in addition to his Salary.

such Commissioner shall be engaged in the Business of such Valuation, as to the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors shall seem proper; and such Salary and Allowance shall be advanced out of the Consolidated Fund, and levied and repaid by Grand Jury Presentments on and of the several Counties in which such Commissioner of Valuation shall be employed, in such Proportions as the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors shall think fit to direct, with regard to the Period of his Employment in each such County respectively; and all and every the Provisions of the said recited Acts directing and authorizing the Advance of Money for the Purpose thereof, and the Presentment and Levy of such Monies of the several Counties liable thereto, shall apply and extend to direct and authorize the Advance, Presentment, and Levy of the Monies required to defray such Allowances.

XIII. And whereas Doubts have arisen whether the Warrants of the Treasurers of Counties in Ireland issued for the levying of Money presented by Grand Juries at each Assizes remain in force beyond the Second Day of the next succeeding Assizes; for Removal of which Doubts, be it enacted, That every such Warrant of every such Treasurer shall be and remain in full Force and Effect for the Term of Two Years next after the Date thereof, unless the Sums required by such Warrant to be levied shall have been received, or unless the Grand Jury of the County shall have re-presented the same.

XIV. And be it enacted, That wherever the Word "Barony" occurs in this Act the Provision shall extend to a Half Barony.

XV. And whereas it is expedient that the Mode of collecting and levying Grand Jury Cess should be amended, be it therefore enacted, That whenever any Person duly authorized to collect and levy any Money to be raised pursuant to Grand Jury Presentment of any Barony or Half Barony, or County of a City or Town, shall have received the Appointment of such Money, he shall collect and levy the same according to such Appointment, and also any Sum of Money not exceeding Five Shillings, in lieu of any Sum heretofore authorized to be levied by any Act now in force for the Appraiser's Fees, and all such Money may be levied by Distress and Sale of any Goods and Chattels of every Person refusing to pay the Proportion therein appointed for him or her to pay which may be found on the Premises chargeable, rendering to the Owner the Overplus, if any, after deducting the Expenses of distraining, not exceeding Twelve-pence in the Pound on the Sums for which such Distress may have been made; and if no sufficient Distress be found on the Premises chargeable, then and in such Case such Collector shall leave at the Dwelling House of the Party chargeable for or in respect of such Premises, if such Person reside within the same County, County of a City or Town, a Notice bearing Date the Day and Year of serving the same, subscribed with the Name and Abode of such Collector, requiring Payment of the Sum appointed within Six Days from the Date of such Notice, and expressing that within Six Days the Money demanded may be paid to the Collector at his House or Office; and if such Money be not so paid within such Time, then it shall be lawful for such Collector to prefer a Complaint to any Justice of the Peace for the same County, County of a City or Town; and such Justice shall summon the Party so complained against to appear before him, and answer the said Complaint, and shall at the Time specified in such Summons cause into the Matter of such Complaint an Oath (which Oath the Justice is lawfully empowered to administer), and shall direct the Payment to such Collector of such Money as he shall find due and payable under such Appointment by the Party complained against, together with a Sum certain as and for such reasonable Costs and Charges as to such Justice shall seem meet, and in default of the Appearance of such Party, or upon his or her Refusal or Neglect forthwith to pay the Sum or Sums so by such Justice directed to be paid, it shall and may be lawful for such Justice, or for any Justice of the Peace for such County, County of a City or Town, to issue his Warrant, authorizing and empowering the said Collector to levy the Money thereby ordered to be paid by Distress and Sale of any Goods or Chattels of the Party so complained against which may be found within any Part of such County, County of a City or Town, rendering the Overplus, if any, to him or her, the necessary Charges and Expenses of distraining being therewith first deducted, as directed by such Justice; and if sufficient Distress cannot be found within the same County, County of a City or Town, then, on Oath thereof made before any Justice of the Peace of any other County, County of a City or Town, in which any of the Goods and Chattels of such Party shall be found, (which Oath such Justice shall administer, and certify by indorsing in his Handwriting, his Name on the Warrant granted to make such Distress), the Goods or Chattels of such Party so refusing or neglecting to pay as aforesaid shall be subject and liable to such Distress and Sale in such other County, County of a City or Town, where the same may be found, and may by virtue of such Warrant and Certificate be distrained and sold in the same Manner as if the same had been found within such first-mentioned County, County of a City or Town.

Treasurer's Warrants to remain in force until Sums required shall be received or re-presented.

The Word "Barony."

How Grand Jury Cess shall be collected.

[18th August 1834.]

WHEREAS according to the Laws now in force in Ireland, where any River is the Boundary between Two Counties, the Expenses of building, rebuilding, repairing, enlarging, or altering any Bridge over such River are to be defrayed by such Two Counties only, that is to say, a Society by such; and no Money can be paid by the Treasurer of either of such Counties on account of any Provisions for any of the aforesaid Purposes unless an equal Sum shall have been presented to be raised for the same Work upon the adjoining County: And whereas Differences have been frequently found to exist between the Grand Juries of such adjacent Counties with respect to the Expediency of the building, rebuilding, altering, or improving or repairing of Bridges so situated, by reason whereof the same have been in many Instances referred to full into Decree, to the great Inconvenience of the Public: And whereas the Objections to making Provisions for such Bridges have been sometimes founded upon the Supposition that the particular Counties which alone would be thereby so charged would not derive from such Bridge a Benefit commensurate with the Expense, whilst other neighbouring Counties would gain a Portion of such Benefit without contributing in any Degree to the Burden, and it is expedient to remove any Foundation for such Objections, be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That where at any Time after the Commencement of this Act it shall be deemed expedient by the Grand Jury of any County or County of a City or Town in Ireland that any Bridge over any River forming a Boundary between such County or County of a City or Town and any other County or County of a City or Town, or any Approach to such Bridge, shall be built, rebuilt, enlarged, altered, repaired, or in anywise improved, it shall and may be lawful for such Grand Jury to present a Memorial to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governor of Ireland, stating the Nature of the Work proposed, and the Reasons for which the same is considered to be useful or desirable, and praying that the Powers by this Act authorized to be exercised may be applied for the Purpose of prosecuting and completing such Work.

XII. And whereas by an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain in the Thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, King George the Third, intitled An Act for building a Bridge over the River Sturmer at Portsmouth in the County of Galway, certain Persons therein named were constituted Trustees for receiving Subscriptions for building a Bridge over the River Sturmer where the Ferry of Portsmouth then was, and the Subscribers therein were created, named, and elected into One Company, and were thereafter to be One Body Politic and Corporate by the Name of the Commissioners for building a Bridge over the River Sturmer at Portsmouth, with certain Powers and Duties in the said Act particularly mentioned and set forth: And whereas the said Company was by the said Act authorized to demand and receive certain Sums therein specified in the Nature of Toll for Passage over the said Bridge, and also to raise Money for the Purposes of the said Act in any Manner which they or any Eleven or more of them should judge necessary: And whereas the said Commissioners afterwards caused a Bridge to be erected and built across the said River Sturmer pursuant to the Provisions of the said Act, and thereupon received and have since continued to collect the several Tolls thereby given, as well for the Purposes of maintaining and keeping in repair the said Bridge as reimbursing the several Persons advancing Money for the Execution thereof: And whereas the said Commissioners, in execution of the Powers by the said Act vested in them, have from Time to Time borrowed considerable Sums of Money on the Credit of the said Tolls, an account of which Loans the said Commissioners are now indebted in the Extent of Three thousand Pounds or thereabouts: And whereas, notwithstanding the Receipt of such Tolls, and of the Funds so produced on the Credit thereof, the said Bridge hath been neglected, and is now in such a State of Dilapidation and Decay as to be nearly impassable and useless, and it is therefore expedient that the Management of the said Bridge should be otherwise conducted, and the Revenue arising therefrom more judiciously and properly applied: It is therefore enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act the said Act of the Thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third shall be and the same is hereby repealed, save and except as to any Matters or Things heretofore done or which have heretofore taken place under the Authority thereof.

* Sum not exceeding the Sum of Fourteen thousand Pounds in making and completing a new Cut or * Piece of Road, leaving the then present Road from London to Holyhead in the Town of Barnet, and * falling into the same Road again at South Mews, the same being within the Limits and District of the * Saint Alban's Trust; and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for the Trustees of * the Saint Alban's Trust, and they were thereby authorized and required, when and as soon as the
 * said new Road should be completed and opened to the Publick, to cause a Toll Gate to be erected
 * and set up on the said new Road, and to take and collect the several Tolls in the now recited Act * particularly mentioned and specified; and it was thereby further enacted, that the said Trustees of * the Saint Alban's Trust should apply and dispose of the Tolls to be collected by them in the end
 * new Lane of Road, under the Authority of the now reciting Act, in manner following: (that is to say,)
 * One Fourth Part of the Amount of the said Tolls should be applied in repairing and maintaining the
 * said last-mentioned new Road, and the other Roads within the Saint Alban's Trust, and all the Rest, * Roades, and Remainder of the Amount of the said last-mentioned Tolls, after deducting the * Expenses of collecting and receiving the same, should be annually accounted for and paid over by * the said Trustees of the said Saint Alban's Trust to the Commissioners acting in the Execution of * the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the * Fourth, until the Amount of the Sum or Sums to be advanced under the Provisions of the now
 * reciting Act, and applied in completing and repairing the said last-mentioned new Piece of Road, * together with Interest for the same after the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be * computed on the said Sum or Sums from the Time of advancing the same, should have been paid * off and discharged, the said Interest of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum on so much of the said
 * Principal Sum or Sums so to be advanced as aforesaid as should from Time to Time remain due
 * to be in the first place paid, and the Balance which should from Time to Time arise from the said * Tolls should be applied, so far as the same might extend, to discharge of the said Principal Sum or * Sums so to be advanced as aforesaid; and when and as soon as the said Principal Money, together
 * with the Interest thereon, should be fully paid off and discharged, the said Trustees of the Saint * Alban's Trust should and they were thereby authorized and required to reduce the said Tolls to One * Half Part of the Amount therein-before directed to be taken and collected by them, and from * thenceforth the said Trustees should collect and receive such reduced Tolls, and, after paying the * Expenses of collecting and receiving the same, should by and apply the Residue thereof in and * towards the future Repair and Maintenance of the whole Lane of Road extending from the Town
 * of Barnet to a certain Place beyond Saint Alban's called the Field Road. And whereas by an Act * passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, * intituled *An Act for the further Improvement of the Road from London to Holyhead, out of the Road
 * from London to Liverpool*, it was enacted, that in case the Sum which by the said recited Act of the * Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth was made applicable to the * making and completing of the said new Piece of Road from Barnet to South Mews should be found * insufficient for the Purpose, the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of * the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth should, in manner therein * directed, certify the Amount of the Deficiency to the said Trustees of the Saint Alban's Trust, and * the said Trustees should pay the Amount of such Deficiency, provided the same should not exceed
 * the Sum of Three thousand Pounds, out of the Tolls to be collected on the said new Piece of Road:
 * And whereas by an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King William
 * the Fourth, intituled *An Act to alter and amend several Acts for the Improvement of the Roads from * London to Holyhead, and from London to Liverpool, and for the further Improvement of the said Roads*,
 * it was enacted, that during such Time as the said new Piece of Road from Barnet to South Mews should * be repaired and maintained by the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of * the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, as aforesaid, under * or by virtue of the Powers and Provisions contained in the said recited Act of the Seventh and * Eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, the said Commissioners were * thereby authorized and empowered, with and out of the Tolls to be received by them from the * Trustees of the Saint Alban's Trust in respect of the said new Piece of Road, to lay out and expend
 * to the Repair and Maintenance of the same such annual Sums or Sums of Money as they the said * Commissioners might think expedient, not exceeding the annual Sum of One thousand Pounds: And * whereas the said new Piece of Road from Barnet to South Mews hath been long since completed and * opened to the Publick, and the same hath been kept in repair by and under the Direction of the * Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His * late Majesty King George the Fourth, up to and until the Nineteenth Day of July One thousand * eight hundred and thirty-three, when the Care and Management of the said Road was transferred to * the Trustees of the Saint Alban's Trust: And whereas the several Sums which were by the said
 * recited Act made applicable to the making, completing, and repairing the said new Piece of Road
 * have been found insufficient for that Purpose; and by an Account made up and audited by the said
 * Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His * late Majesty King George the Fourth it appears that at the Time of transferring the said new Piece
 * of Road to the Trustees of the Saint Alban's Trust as aforesaid several further Sums of Money

in respect thereof: And whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for the Payment of such Sums of Money to the said Commissioners acting in execution of the heretofore recited Act of the Third and Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty: he it therefore farther enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Trustees of the Saint Alban's Trust, and they are hereby authorized, empowered, and required, to continue the Tolls by them imposed and raised and now levied under or by virtue of the said recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, for the Purpose of paying off the several Sums authorized and directed by that Act and by the said recited Acts of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth and the First Year of the Reign of His present Majesty to be laid out and expended in the making and repairing of the said new Piece of Road from Barnet to South Mimms, and all Interest due or to become due on the said several and respective Sums, and as well the said several Sums, and all Interest due said to become due thereon respectively, as also the Sums or Sums to be paid by the Trustees of the Saint Alban's Trust to the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Third and Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty as herein after directed, together with all Interest thereon, shall be fully paid off and discharged.

IV. And he it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees of the Saint Alban's Trust, and they are hereby authorized and required, with and out of the said Tolls, (in addition to and over and above the several Sums mentioned in the said recited Acts of the Seventh and Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, and the First Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and Interest thereon respectively,) to pay to the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Third and Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty such further Sums or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Four thousand five hundred Pounds, as shall have been paid and applied in making and repairing the before-mentioned new Piece of Road, together with Interest at the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be computed from the Time or respective Times of the advancing thereof, on so much of the said last-mentioned Sums or Sums as shall from Time to Time remain due and unpaid.

V. And whereas by an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for the further Improvement of the Road from London to Holyhead, and of the Road from London to Liverpool, it was enacted, that the Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth should apply any Sum not exceeding the Sum of Four thousand seven hundred Pounds in clearing and improving the Road from Hockley in the County of Bedford to Stony Stratford in the County of Buckingham, the same being within the Limits and District of the Hockley and Stony Stratford Trust, and in repairing the same for the Space of Two Years after the same should have been completed; and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for the Trustees of the Hockley and Stony Stratford Road, and they were thereby required, to continue the additional Tolls by them imposed and raised and then levied for the Purpose of paying off the Sums of Seven thousand Pounds and One thousand five hundred Pounds, advanced for certain Alterations and Improvements in the said Road in the said Act mentioned, and as well the said Sums of Seven thousand Pounds and One thousand five hundred Pounds so advanced, and all Interest thereon respectively, as also the Principal Sum or Sums to be advanced under the Provisions of the now recited Act, and to be applied in clearing and improving the Road within the said Trust and in repairing the same as therein-before directed, together with Interest at the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be computed from the Time or respective Times of the advancing thereof, on so much of the said last-mentioned Sum or Sums as should from Time to Time remain due and unpaid, should be fully paid off and discharged: And whereas the Alterations and Improvements in the Road from Hockley to Stony Stratford authorized and directed to be made and done by the said recited Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth have been some Time since completed and finished, and the said Road hath been kept in repair by and under the Direction of the Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, up to and until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and thirty, when the Care and Management of the said Road was transferred by them to the Trustees of the Hockley and Stony Stratford Trust: And whereas the said Sum of Four thousand seven hundred Pounds, by the said recited Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth made applicable to the making and completing such Alterations and Improvements in the said Road, has been found sufficient for the Purpose of completing and repairing the same; and by an Account made up and stated by the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, it appears that at the Time of their transferring the said Road to the Trustees of the Hockley and Stony Stratford Trust several further Sums of Money had been laid out and expended by them the said Commissioners in the said Alterations and Improvements in the said Road, and other Sums of Money remained due and owing from the said Commissioners in respect thereof: And whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for the Payment of such Sums of Money to the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty: he it therefore farther enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees of the Hockley and Stony Stratford Road, and they are hereby authorized, empowered, and required, to continue the additional Tolls by them imposed and raised and now levied under or by virtue of the said recited Act of the Seventh

And by a further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees of the Buckfild and Streetsford Road, and they are hereby authorized and required, with and out of the said additional Tolls, (in addition to and over and above the said several Sums of Seven thousand Pounds, One thousand five hundred Pounds, and Four thousand seven hundred Pounds, and the Interest thereof respectively,) to pay to the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Third and Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty such further Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Two thousand five hundred Pounds, as shall here be laid out and applied in the Alterations and Improvements of the said Road within the Buckfild and Streetsford Trust, together with Interest at the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be computed from the Time or respective Times of the advancing thereof, on as much of the said last-mentioned Sum or Sums as shall from Time to Time remain due and unpaid.

VII. And whereas by the said recited Act of the Seventh and Eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth it was enacted, that it should be lawful for the Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth to apply the Sum of Twelve thousand Pounds in making and completing a new Cut or Piece of Road, leaving the then present Road from Leaden to Highland at the Seven Stars Public House at Widley in the County of the City of County, and passing from thence in nearly a direct Line to within a short Distance of the Southern End of Little Park Street in the City of County, and from thence into Mayford Street in the same City, and leaving the said City or Saint John's Church, and passing from thence in a direct Line to the Village of Widley in the County of Warrick, the same being within the Limits and District of the Dunbarrow and Stonebridge Trust, and in or towards the repairing and maintaining such Parts of the said new Piece of Road as therein-after mentioned for the Period of Two Years after the same should have been completed and opened to the Public; and it was thereby also further enacted, that the said Trustees of the Dunbarrow and Stonebridge Trust should and they were thereby authorized and required to demand and take at the several Turnpike Gates which should be erected by virtue of the said Act or any other Act upon the said Road or any Part thereof, besides the ordinary Tolls authorized to be collected and taken by them by the Act therein mentioned, the several Tolls and Duties so in the now recited Act particularly mentioned and specified; and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for the said Trustees of the Dunbarrow and Stonebridge Trust, and they were thereby authorized and required, to apply the Monies arising from the said additional Tolls to be so collected by them as aforesaid, in the first place, in the Payment of Two several Sums of Three thousand five hundred Pounds and Two thousand Pounds in the now-recited Act mentioned, and the Interest thereof respectively, or so much thereof as remained due and unpaid; in the next place, in repaying to the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty the Sum of Twelve thousand Pounds, to be applied, under the Provisions therein-before contained, in making the aforesaid new Piece of Road within the said Trust, together with Interest at the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be computed from the Time or respective Times of advancing the same, on as much of the said last-mentioned Sum as should be for the Time being due and unpaid.

And whereas by the said recited Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth it was enacted, that the Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth should apply any Sum not exceeding Four thousand Pounds in altering and improving the Road from the Seven Stars Public House at Widley to the City of County, and from thence to the Village of Widley, in the County of Warrick, the same being within the Limits and District of the Dunbarrow and Stonebridge Trust, and in repaying the same for the Period of Two Years after the same should have been completed; and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for the Trustees of the Dunbarrow and Stonebridge Trust, and they were thereby required, to continue the additional Tolls by them imposed on the road, and then listed under the Powers and Authorities of the said recited Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His then present Majesty, for the Purpose of paying off the several Sums of Three thousand five hundred Pounds, Two thousand Pounds, and Twelve thousand Pounds in the said Act mentioned, and all Interest due or to become due on the said several and respective Sums, until as well the said several Sums of Three thousand five hundred Pounds, Two thousand Pounds, and Twelve thousand Pounds, and all Interest due or to become due thereon respectively, as also the Principal Sum or Sums to be advanced under the Provisions of the now recited Act, and to be applied in making Improvements in the Road within the Districts of the Dunbarrow and Stonebridge Trust, and in repaying the same as therein-before directed, together with Interest at the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be computed from the Time or respective Times of the advancing thereof, on as much of the said last-mentioned Sum or Sums as should from Time to Time remain due and unpaid, should be fully paid off and discharged: And whereas the said

Trustees of the Buckfild and Streetsford Road to pay to the Commissioners the said Sums out of additional Tolls, not exceeding 2,500*l*.

Trustees of Dunbarrow and Stonebridge Trust to continue additional Tolls.

Alterations, and Improvements within the Dunshard and Stowbridge Tract authorized and directed to be made and done by the said recited Acts of the Seventh and Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, have been since Time since completed and finished, and the said Roads have been kept in repair by and under the Direction of the Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, up to and until the Twentieth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, when the Care and Management of the said Roads was transferred to the Trustees of the Dunshard and Stowbridge Tract: And whereas the said several Sums of Twelve thousand Pounds and Four thousand Pounds by the said recited Acts of the Seventh and Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign of His said late Majesty made applicable to the making and completing such new Pieces of Road, Alterations, and Improvements, have been found insufficient for the Purpose of completing the same; and by an Account made up and stated by the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth as aforesaid, it appears that at the Time of their transferring the said Roads to the Trustees of the Dunshard and Stowbridge Tract several further Sums of Money have been laid out and expended by them the said Commissioners in or about the said new Pieces of Road, Alterations, and Improvements, and other Sums of Money remained due and owing from the said Commissioners in respect thereof: And whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for the Payment of such Sums of Money to the said Commissioners, acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty; he it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees of the Dunshard and Stowbridge Tract, and they are hereby authorized, empowered, and required, to continue the additional Tolls by them imposed and raised and now levied under or by virtue of the said recited Act of the Seventh and Eighth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty as aforesaid, for the Purpose of paying off the several Sums of Three thousand five hundred Pounds, Two thousand Pounds, Twelve thousand Pounds, and Four thousand Pounds, mentioned in the said recited Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty as aforesaid, and as well the said last-mentioned several Sums, and all Interest due or to become due thereon respectively, as also the Sum or Sums to be paid by the Trustees of the Dunshard and Stowbridge Tract to the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, as herein-after directed, together with Interest thereon, shall be fully paid off and discharged.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees of the Dunshard and Stowbridge Tract, and they are hereby authorized and required, with and out of the said additional Tolls, (in addition to and over and above the said several Sums of Three thousand five hundred Pounds, Two thousand Pounds, Twelve thousand Pounds, and Four thousand Pounds, and the Interest thereof respectively,) to pay to the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Third and Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty such further Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Two thousand five hundred Pounds, as shall have been laid out and applied in the making and completing the said new Pieces of Road, Alterations, and Improvements within the Dunshard and Stowbridge Tract, together with Interest at the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be computed from the Time or respective Times of the advancing thereof, on so much of the said last-mentioned Sum or Sums as shall from Time to Time remain due and unpaid.

IX. And whereas by the said recited Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth it was enacted, that the Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty should apply any Sum not exceeding the Sum of Five thousand five hundred Pounds in making a new Cut or Piece of Road from the Main Street in the Town of Stafford in the County of Staffs, and passing from thence in nearly a straight Line over Peaslake belonging to Minor Snow and others in the Cross Lane to the then private Mail Coach Road near Minor Snow's Gate, the same being within the Limits and District of the Stafford District of the Walsley Street Road, and so repairing the same for the Period of Two Years after the same should have been completed; and it was thereby further enacted, that the Trustees of the Stafford and District of the Walsley Street Road should after the First of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty-one demand and take at the Turnpike Gates which should be erected on the said Road or any Part thereof, being Part of the Stafford Mail Coach Road, besides the ordinary Tolls by the Act therein mentioned authorized to be taken, the several additional Tolls in the now reciting Act particularly mentioned; and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for the said Trustees of the Stafford District of the Walsley Street Road, and they were thereby authorized and required, to apply the Money arising from the said additional Tolls to be so collected by them as aforesaid, in the first place, in the Payment of Two several Sums of Two thousand Pounds and Four thousand Pounds, and the Interest thereof respectively, or so much thereof as still remained due and unpaid, in the next place, in repaying to the said Commissioners acting in Execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth the Sum of Five thousand five hundred Pounds, to be applied, under the Provisions in the now reciting Act contained, in making the Alterations and Improvements in the Road within the said Tract, together with Interest at the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be computed from the Time or respective Times of advancing the same, or so much of the said last-mentioned Sum of Five thousand five hundred Pounds as should be for the Time being due and unpaid, such Interest, to be paid by Two half-yearly Payments for every Year, being due and unpaid, each Interest, to be paid by Two half-yearly

IV. And whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for allowing the Makers of Starch to make, Duty-free, before the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, Starch not to be sold or consumed, (except as herein after is provided with respect to Makers of Starch Blue;) until after the said Tenth Day of October, when the said Duties are to cease and determine; be it therefore enacted, That every Maker of Starch who shall intend to make or store any Starch Duty-free, not to be sold or sent into Consumption (except as aforesaid) until after the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, shall give Notice in Writing of such his Intention to the Officer of Excise before storing any Starch, and in such Notice shall specify some separate and secure Room, Cellar, or Store, to be approved of by the Commissioners of Excise or their Officers, for the keeping therein of all such Starch as shall be stored Duty-free; and such Maker may, when giving Notice for the Removal from the Store of any Starch which may be in the Store at the passing of this Act, give Notice in Writing to the proper Officer, specifying in such Notice how much of such Starch is to be taken out for immediate Consumption and Payment of Duty and how much thereof is to be stored Duty-free, and the Officer of Excise having received such Notice shall attend and take an Account of the Quantity so specified as to be Duty-paid, and charge the Duty on the same in the ordinary and usual Manner, and such Officer shall also take an Account by counting the Pieces or weight, or by both counting and weighing, of the Quantity of Starch specified in the Notice as to be stored Duty-free; and such Officer having taken such Account shall forthwith cancel or obliterate as such Manner as the Commissioners of Excise shall direct all the Stamps on the several and respective Pieces of Starch so intended to be stored Duty-free; and such Account having been taken, and the said Stamps having been cancelled or obliterated, all such Starch shall be forthwith deposited and stored in the separate Room, Cellar, or Store approved by the Commissioners of Excise or their Officers, under the Locks and Keys of the Officers of Excise, and otherwise secured in such Manner as the Commissioners of Excise shall direct; and as often as any other Starch shall be made the Maker thereof shall, when giving Notice of his Intention to paper the same, likewise give Notice in Writing to the proper Officer of Excise of how much of such Starch is intended for immediate Consumption and to be charged with Duty, and how much thereof is to be stored Duty-free, and the Officer of Excise attending to give such Starch papered shall stamp so much thereof as shall be intended according to such Notice for immediate Consumption and to be Duty-paid, and shall omit to stamp the Residue thereof which shall be intended to be stored Duty-free; and the Starch so stamped shall be taken account of and charged with Duty in the usual and ordinary Manner, and the Starch not stamped shall be taken account of in the Manner herein-before provided, and shall, when so taken account of, be intended to be stored Duty-free; and all Starch so stored without Payment of Duty shall be kept as stored and secured, and shall not be sold or sent into Consumption, or any Part thereof be removed or delivered to the Maker thereof, until the Eleventh Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four (except as herein-after provided with respect to Makers of Starch Blue;) and on the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four the proper Officer of Excise shall take an Account of all the said Starch which shall have been so stored and secured Duty-free as aforesaid; and if upon Persons claiming Allowance of Duties on Starch used in Manufactures to make Cloth that the Starch was used before 10th October 1834.

Starch not intended to be sent into Consumption until after 10th October 1834 may be made and stored Duty-free.

such Account the whole Quantity of Starch shall be found in the Stock of the Maker who shall have made the same stored and secured as aforesaid, and the Officers of Excise shall be satisfied that it is the same Starch which was made and stored Duty-free, and that no Part thereof has been sold into Consumption (except to a Maker of Stone Blue as herein-after provided), nor any Addition been made thereto or Alteration therein, all the said Starch shall be delivered Duty-free to the Maker thereof.

V. And be it enacted, That if any Starch which shall be so stored under the Regulations aforesaid as not to be sent into Consumption until after the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four shall not at any Time previous thereto be so stored and secured as such separate and secure Rooms, Cellars, or Store as aforesaid, or if any such Maker of Starch shall open or procure to be opened any such Rooms, Cellars, or Store, or injure any of the Locks or Fastenings thereof, or remove or cause or procure to be removed any Starch from or out of the same, or shall sell or send out any such Starch so stored Duty-free (except to a Maker of Stone Blue as herein-after provided), that it is to say, on the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, or at any Time previous thereto, the Officers of Excise shall not find all such Starch as stored and secured and unopened (except by any Quantity sent out to a Maker of Stone Blue as aforesaid), or if any such Maker of Starch shall use or procure any Art or Device to deceive any Officer of Excise in taking an Account of such Starch, or to remove any such Starch, or to evade any Part of the Duties on Starch with which previous to the said Tenth Day of October he might or would be chargeable, then the Commissioners of Excise are hereby authorized and required to demand and collect the Duties of Excise (according to any Account which they may have of the same) on all the Starch made by each Maker of Starch previous to the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, and the said Makers shall be liable to the Payment of all such Duties; and the same shall and may in default of Payment be levied, collected, and enforced under the Laws, Provisions, and Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures now in force for collecting and securing the Duties of Excise.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Insolvent Debtors in India.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled An Act to provide for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in the East Indies until the First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three; and by another Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King William the Fourth the said Act was amended in force until the First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six: And whereas, in and by the said Act to provide for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in the East Indies, certain Provisions were enacted as to a Commission of Bankruptcy issuing against any such Insolvent Debtor as therein mentioned, and as to the Proceedings consequent thereon: and amongst other Things it was enacted, that a Certificate obtained under such Commission as therein provided should have the same Force and Effect in all Places situate without the Limits of the East India Company's Charter as if the same had been duly agreed in the usual Way after such Bankrupt had duly surrendered and passed his last Examination: and it was also by the said Act amongst other Things provided and enacted, that whenever it shall be made to appear to the Satisfaction of any Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, upon the Application of any Insolvent, his Assignee or Assignees, or any of his or her Creditors, that the Estate of such Insolvent Debtor which shall have come to the Hands of the Assignee or Assignees shall have produced sufficient to pay and discharge Three Fourths of the Amount of the Debts which shall have been established in such Court, or that Creditors to the Amount of more than One Half in Number and Value of the Debts which shall have been so established shall signify their Consent in Writing thereto, it shall be lawful for such Court to inquire into the Conduct of the said Insolvent, and if it shall appear to such Court that the said Insolvent has acted fairly and honestly towards his or her Creditors, such Court shall be fully authorized and empowered thereupon to order that the said Insolvent shall be for ever discharged from all Liability whatsoever for or in respect of such Debts so established as aforesaid, and such Court shall, in the Order to be drawn up, specify and set forth the Names of such Creditors; and after any such Order shall have been so made no further Proceedings shall be had in the Matter of the Petition before the Court, unless upon Appeal made to the Supreme Court of Judicature of the Presidency where such Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors shall be holden as thereby authorized, and it was by the said-entitled Act also provided, that no such Order as last aforesaid shall prevent any Creditors who shall not have been resident within the Limits of the Charter of the said United Company at any Time between the filing of such Petition and the making of such Order as last mentioned, and who shall not have taken Part in any of the Proceedings under the said Petition, from bringing any Suit or Action in the East Indies for the Purpose of obtaining Execution against the Goods, Estate, or Effects of such Insolvent for any unsatisfied Claim of such Creditors, nor from bringing any Suit or Action for such Claim in any Court of the United Kingdom, against Goods Bought and Sold, or elsewhere without the Limits of the said United Company's Charter, against such Insolvent, in the same Manner and with the like Consequences and Effects as if such Order as last mentioned had not been made: And whereas it is expedient to amend and add to the Provisions of the said Acts, so as to give to Insolvent Debtors, being Traders, who shall have acted fairly and honestly towards their Creditors, an additional and more complete Discharge, and also to render more effectual the Means of obtaining such Discharge, and as the same Ties to pressure to such Insolvent Debtors such Relief as is already afforded by the said-entitled Acts: And whereas under the Provisions of the Act passed in the First and Second Years of His present Majesty King William the Fourth intitled An Act to establish a Court in Bankruptcy, a Fiat is issued in Bankruptcy in lieu of a Commission of Bankrupt in every Case where the Lord Chancellor by virtue of any former Act had heretofore Power to issue a Commission of Bankrupt: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That any Person who now is or who shall hereafter become an Insolvent Debtor within the Intent and Meaning of the said Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, either upon Petition filed, or by Adjudication on an Act of Insolvency as therein provided, and who at the Time of such Petition being filed or Adjudication made as aforesaid shall have been or shall be a Person who, by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intitled An Act to amend the Laws relating to Bankrupts, or by any Act hereafter to be passed, would be deemed a Trader liable to become Bankrupt, shall be at Liberty, at any Time not earlier than Three Months from the making of such Assignment as in the said Act, intitled An Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in the East Indies, distinctly and expressly to give and assign to his Creditors in Writing (intituled (as the

IV. And whereas by the said last-mentioned Act the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs are empowered and required to allow the Sale of any Property liable to the Payment of Duty saved from Sea, free from the Payment of all Duties, to the Amount of any Sum awarded, paid, or agreed to be paid in respect of such Salvage, or to the Amount of such other Sum as to the said Commissioners shall seem just and reasonable for the same, and it is expedient to amend the same; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act so much of the said recited Act as is herein-before mentioned shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

V. VI. And whereas by the said Act Manufactures of Silk, being the Manufactures of Europe, are prohibited to be imported into Dover, except from Calais; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful to import such Manufactures into Dover from Boulogne in the same Manner as such Manufactures can be imported into Dover from Calais under the Provisions of the said Act.

And whereas an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for granting a Duty of Customs, and it is expedient to amend the same in manner herein-after mentioned; be it therefore enacted, That if any Mahogany which had been imported direct from the Bay of Honduras in a Ship cleared out from the Port of Bahia into a free warehousing Port in any of the British Possessions in America, and there warehoused as having been so cleared and imported, shall be exported from the Warehouse, and reimported direct into the United Kingdom, such Mahogany shall be subject in the United Kingdom to the same Duty as it would have been subject to if it had been imported direct from the Bay of Honduras in a British Ship cleared out from the Port of Bahia, provided it shall appear in the proper Clearance of the Ship importing the same into the United Kingdom that such Mahogany had been so warehoused and exported from the Warehouse as aforesaid.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That Spirits or Strong Waters imported into the United Kingdom, mixed with any Ingredients, and although thereby coming under some other Denomination, shall nevertheless be deemed to be Spirits or Strong Waters within the Meaning of the said last-mentioned Act, and be subject to Duty as such.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That for any Barilla used in the Process of bleaching of Linens a Repayment of the Duties which have been paid on the Importation of such Barilla shall be made to the Person so using the same, under such Regulations as the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs shall direct.

enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by His Order in Council, to extend the said Provisions to Brandy, Geneva, or other Spirits, and Tobacco, imported from Foreign Ports into the said Islands, and exported from the said Islands; and it is hereby enacted, That it shall be lawful to import into the Islands of Arica, Guayaquil, Mollendo, or Shark Brandy, Geneva, or other Spirits, and Tobacco, from Foreign Parts, in Packages required by Law, to Ships of the Burthen of Seventy Tons at least, and to export the like Goods from the said Islands in Ships of the like Tonnage.

14 & W. 4. c. 25.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to alter and amend the Laws relating to the Temporalities of the Church in Ireland: And whereas it is expedient to amend the said Act: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, and His Majesty's Privy Council there, in the Case of the Deanery of Lincoln now vacant, when they shall so think fit, at any Time after the passing of this Act, and in the Case of any and every other Ecclesiastical Dignity or Office under the Rank of an Archbishoprick or Bishoprick, the Person holding which shall not have actual Care of Souls within any Parish appertained thereto, and also in the Case of any and every Rectory whereof the King shall be Patron, or the Right of Presentation or Collation whereunto shall be in any Archbishop, Bishop, or other Ordinary, or in any Ecclesiastical Corporation, and the Rector whereof shall not have actual Care of Souls therein, whatsoever after the passing of this Act any such Dignity, Office, or Rectory shall become void in any Manner whatsoever, upon the Recommendation of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for Ireland, signified by any Instrument under their Corporate Seal, if the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors and Council shall so think fit, to order and direct that the Appointment to such Dignity, Office, or Rectory shall be suspended until such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors and Council shall think fit otherwise to direct: and in the meantime, and for and during such Period as such Dignity, Office, or Rectory shall remain vacant, all and every the Tithes, Glebes, Lands, Rents, Profits, and Emoluments whatsoever belonging or appertaining thereto, and all Avenues of such Tithes, Rents, Profits, and Emoluments which may have accrued since the same may have become void as aforesaid, shall be voted in and received by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, to be by them applied towards the like Purposes as the other Moneys and Funds accruing or to vest in them under the Provisions of the said Act; and the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall have all and every the like Remedies for the Recovery of such Tithes, Glebes, Rents, Lands, Profits, and Emoluments, and all Avenues thereof, as any Person filling such Dignity, Office, or Rectory might or would have, and shall be for all such Issues and Purposes in the Place and Stead of such Person: Provided always, that in the Case of any such Suspension as aforesaid it shall and may be lawful for the Chapter of any Diocese or Cathedral Church, or Members thereof, to nominate and appoint some fit and proper Person to perform and exercise all such Acts and Duties in relation to the Property of any such Chapter or Cathedral Church or otherwise as might or ought to have been or be performed or exercised by any Successor in such Dignity or Office as suspended if such Successor had been appointed; and such Person so nominated and appointed shall have all such Powers and Authorities, and be subject to all such Liabilities, in relation to the Performance of such Acts and Powers, Spiritual or other Duties, as any such Successor, if duly appointed, would have had or been subject to; and all the Acts of the Person so appointed shall be of equal Force and Validity as the Acts of any

It. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if in any Case it shall seem expedient to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, and His Majesty's Privy Council there, to remove any such Suspension, and to give Authority for the Appointment to any Office, Dignity, or Rectory, subject to the Severance thereof of all and every the Tithes, Glebes, Lands, Rents, Profits, and Emoluments whatsoever appertaining thereto, it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, and His Majesty's Privy Council there, to remove such Suspension accordingly, on the Condition here's-before contained.

XV. XVIII. And whereas it is necessary to explain and amend certain Provisions of the said recited Act in respect of the Bishopricks of Ferry and Leighlin and Down, and of Cloyne and Cork and Ross; be it therefore enacted and declared to be the Meaning of the said recited Act, That the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall, by such Instalments, to be made in such Manner and at such Periods from and after the respective Periods when the Bishoprick of Ferry and Leighlin shall become united to the Bishoprick of Down, and the Bishoprick of Cloyne united to that of Cork and Ross, as any Successors thereto would have been respectively bound or liable if such Successors had been appointed, pay to the Persons or their Representatives by whose Presentation or Death such Vacancies shall have occurred or been occasioned, or who shall become the Bishops respectively of such united Bishopricks, all and every such Sums or Sums of Money as would have been payable by or recoverable against the several Successors in the said Bishoprick of Ferry and Leighlin and Bishoprick of Cloyne respectively, in case the said Act had not been passed; and that the Bishops of such united Bishopricks of Ferry and Leighlin and of Down shall be and become liable to the Payment of all such like Sums or Sums of Money as any Successor or Successors in the said Bishoprick of Down would have been in case the said Act had not been passed; and the Bishops of such united Dioceses of Cloyne and of Cork and Ross shall be and become liable to the Payment of all such like Sums or Sums of Money as any Successor or Successors in XXVI. And whereas under and by virtue of the said recited Act it is enacted that it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, out of the said Funds therein mentioned, to defray all such incidental Charges and Expenses as shall become necessary in the Execution of the several Powers and Trusts by the said Act, or any Act thereunto to be passed, reposed in them. And whereas it is expedient that the Sum to be paid for Costs to the Solicitor or Attorney employed by the said Commissioners should be limited in Amount; be it therefore enacted, That no Sum shall be paid by said Commissioners to any Attorney or Solicitor as and for Costs, Charges, or Expenses unless the Amount of such Payment shall first have been approved of by the Lords of the Treasury: Provided always, that no Sum exceeding One thousand Pounds shall be allowed in any One Year by the said Lords of the Treasury as and for the Costs, Charges, or Expenses of any such Attorney or Solicitor, and before any such Sum shall be allowed by the said Lords Commissioners of the Treasury on such Account as aforesaid, the Particulars of all such Costs, Charges, and Expenses shall be laid before them.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, with the Consent and Approbation of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to bestow and apply out of any Surplus or Balance which may arise in any Year, after the Provision made for the several Objects and Purposes to which the Funds accruing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners under the Provisions of the said Act of the last Session of Parliament are primarily applicable, such Sums as they shall think proper for and to such charitable Purposes as the Bishops of the several Bishopricks, the Temporality whereof may now be or hereafter become void in the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, may have usually subscribed or contributed towards.

And whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for facilitating the Execution of the Deed or Deeds of Conveyance of Lands and Premises to be purchased pursuant to the said recited Act, where such Lands and Premises are or shall be held under any Archbishop, Bishop, or other Sole Ecclesiastical Corporation; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, so much of the said recited Act shall be repealed as provides that if such Lands so to be purchased shall, at the Time of such Purchase, belong to or be held under any Archbishop or Bishop, or other Ecclesiastical Person, then and in such Case, on the Production by Tenant or Lessee, as therein mentioned, to the said Archbishop, Bishop, or other Ecclesiastical Person, of such Notice or Certificate, and of such Receipt of the Cashier or Cashiers of the Bank of England as therein mentioned, such Archbishop, Bishop, or other Ecclesiastical Person shall and he and they is and are hereby required and directed to execute, seal, and deliver a Deed of Conveyance of the Fee Simple and Inheritance of the said Lands and Premises to such Tenant or Lessee, when the same shall be tendered for Execution, subject to such annual Rent as therein mentioned; and that if such Archbishop, Bishop, or other Ecclesiastical Person shall, on the Production of such Notice or Certificate and Receipt as aforesaid, refuse or neglect to execute such Deed of Conveyance, when tendered for Execution as aforesaid, for the Space of Two Calendar Months after such Tender shall have been made as aforesaid, then, upon such Proof being made to the said Commissioners by Affidavit to be sworn before such Person as therein mentioned, (which Affidavit they are thereby respectively empowered to administer,) or upon Oath of a credible Witness to be examined by the said Commissioners, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners and they are thereby empowered and required to execute, seal, and deliver the said Deed or Deeds of Conveyance in the Name of and on behalf of the said Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person so refusing or neglecting to execute the same as aforesaid, and to affix the Corporate Seal of the said Commissioners to such Deed or Deeds, and to certify the Cause of their so executing the same by Writing at the Foot of or on the Back of the said Deed or Deeds; and that such Execution of the said Deed or Deeds by the said Commissioners shall be as valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever as if the said Deed or Deeds had been duly executed by the said Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, in pursuance of the said recited Act; and so much and such Parts of the said recited Act is and are hereby repealed accordingly.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That in case any Lands, Premises, or Hereditaments, purchased or to be purchased pursuant to the Provisions of the said recited Act and of this Act or of either of them, shall at the Time of such Purchase be held under any Archbishop, Bishop, or other Ecclesiastical Person, it shall and may be lawful for the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, as Producers to them of the Receipt of the Cashier or Cashiers of the Bank of England for the Amount of the Purchase Money so directed and payable in respect of such Lands, Premises, or Hereditaments pursuant to the and recited Act and of this Act, to execute, seal, and deliver, in the Name and in behalf of such Archbishop, Bishop, or other Ecclesiastical Person, a Deed of Conveyance of the Fee Simple and Inheritance of the said Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, to the Tenant or Lessee thereof, unto and to the Use of such Tenant or Lessee, his Heirs and Assigns, or as he or they shall appoint, subject to such annual Rent as in and by the said recited Act is provided; and the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall affix to such Deed or Deeds of Conveyance their Corporate Seal, and shall give to the Post or on the Book of such Deed or Deeds respectively a Certificate or Certificates, which shall be conclusive Evidence of the Truth of the Matter thereby certified, that such Deed or Deeds has or have been executed pursuant to the Provisions of the said recited Act and of this Act; and such Deed or Deeds shall be in like Form, and shall, when so executed, be as valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes as if the same had been duly executed pursuant to the said recited Act by such Archbishop, Bishop, or other Ecclesiastical Person, in case the said Act had not been passed: Provided always, that the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall, One Calendar Month at least before the Execution of such Conveyance, notify, by such Notice in Writing as to and by the said recited Act for that Purpose is directed, to the Archbishop, Bishop, or other Ecclesiastical Person under whom the said Lands and Premises are or shall be held as aforesaid, the Amount of the annual Rent to be thereafter received and payable out of the said Lands and Premises, and of the Purchase Money to be paid for the Conveyance thereof, pursuant to the Provisions of the said recited Act.

XXX. And whereas in many Cases the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments held under Leases from Archbishops, Bishops, or other Ecclesiastical Commissioners Sole or Inbred have been subject to Under-tenants, who are entitled, under Covenants or Contracts, to the Renewal of their Leases from Time to Time as often as the first or immediate Tenant thereof shall obtain Renewal of their Leases from any such Archbishop, Bishop, or other Ecclesiastical Commissioner Sole, and by reason of the small Interest of the first or immediate Tenants in such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, or for other Reasons, they may not be desirous to purchase the Fee Simple and Inheritance therein, and it is expedient that in such Cases the Under-tenants thereof should be authorized to purchase the same, subject to the Provisions and Regulations herein-after contained; be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Under-tenant, having any derivative Estate or Interest in any such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments by virtue of any Lease containing any such Covenant or Contract for the Renewal thereof as aforesaid, either mediately or immediately through or under the first or immediate Tenant thereof, to apply (in the Manner prescribed by the said Act in reference to first or immediate Tenants) for the Purchase of the Fee Simple and Inheritance of and in the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments held by such Under-tenant under any such Lease, giving Notice, nevertheless, in Writing of such Application to the first or immediate Tenant of such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, and to all other Tenants thereof (if any) intervening between such Archbishop, Bishop, or other Ecclesiastical Corporation Sole and the Under-tenant making such Application, or to the known Agent or Receiver, Agents or Receivers of each first and other intervening Tenants; and upon the Receipt of such Notice, or at any Time within Twelve Calendar Months thereafter, it shall be lawful as well for such first or immediate as for any other of such intervening Tenants to apply in like Manner for the Purchase of the Fee Simple and Inheritance of and in the same Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, and the first or immediate Tenant of such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments is hereby empowered to contract or agree for the Purchase thereof accordingly, in the Manner provided by the said Act, or as near thereto as Circumstances will admit, notwithstanding such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments shall not constitute the whole of the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments held by him under any Lease from any such Archbishop, Bishop, or other Ecclesiastical Corporation Sole; and in case such first or immediate Tenant shall neglect or omit to make Application in manner by the said Act directed for the Purchase of the Fee Simple and Inheritance of and in such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments for the Space of Twelve Calendar Months after such Notice in Writing shall have been given to him, or to his known Agent or Receiver, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to treat, contract, or agree with such Under-tenant who may have given such Notice as aforesaid, or with any intervening Tenant who may have made Application within the said Period of Twelve Months, for the absolute Purchase by him of the Fee Simple and Inheritance of and in the same Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, upon such and the same Terms and in the same Manner as in the said Act is prescribed for the Purchase of Perpetuities by any first or immediate Tenant, but subject nevertheless (in addition to the Rent thereby directed to be reserved and made payable to the Archbishop, Bishop, or other Ecclesiastical Corporation Sole under whom the same are immediately held) to a perpetual Rent-charge, or as many perpetual Rent-charges as there are Tenants intervening between such Archbishop, Bishop, or other Ecclesiastical Corporation Sole, and the Under-tenant entering into such Contract for Purchase, such Rent-charge or Rent-charges to be ascertained in manner herein-after mentioned, and to be issuing out of the same Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, and to be reserved and made payable to such intervening Tenant or Tenants, his or their Heirs and Assigns for ever: Provided always, that in case more than One of such Under-tenants shall make Application for such Purchase, the Application of the Under-tenant holding directly under such first or immediate Tenant shall be preferred to that of the one next below, and so on according to Priority of holding down to the Under-tenant so giving Notice as aforesaid; and the said Commissioners shall convey the said Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, as aforesaid to be purchased, to the Under-tenant so purchasing, in the SHARD and other two Registers by the said Act provided in relation to the Purchase thereby authorized to be made, subject nevertheless to the additional perpetual Rent-charge or Rents-charge herein-before mentioned; and immediately upon the Execution of such Conveyance the Reversion or respective Reversions then vested in such intervening Tenant or Tenants shall, so far only as respects such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, be absolutely merged and extinguished in the Freehold and Inheritance thereby conveyed to such Purchaser, and the said perpetual Rent-charge or Rents-charge, and the Estate or Interest therein, shall be considered as a Substute or Substitutes for the Rent and Reversion so merged and extinguished as aforesaid.

XXXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Amount of the perpetual Rent-charge so to be reserved and made payable to every such intervening Tenant shall be equal to the net annual Income or Profit Rent for the Time being derived by him from the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments so purchased by such Under-tenant as aforesaid, such net annual Income or Profit Rent to be ascertained by deducting the Amount or proportional Amount of the annual Rents, Fees, and other Outgoings and Expenses payable by such intervening Tenant in respect of such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments from the Amount or proportional Amount of the annual Rents, Fines, and other Outgoings and Expenses payable to him in respect of such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments by the Under-tenant holding the same directly under him; and for the Purpose of ascertaining the said several Particulars the said Commissioners shall have all such Powers and Authorities, and shall take all such Measures, as are respectively given to and directed to be taken by them for the Purpose of ascertaining the several Particulars directed to be required into by the said Act; and every such perpetual Rent-charge shall be payable by equal half yearly Payments on the First Day of May and the First Day of November in each Year, and shall be recoverable by all the Ways and Means used for the Recovery of Rents in England.

XXXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any such intervening Tenant shall not be absolutely entitled to the Leasehold Interest under the Lease by virtue of which he holds, then and in every such Case, notwithstanding the Reservation of the said perpetual Rent-charge to such intervening Tenant, his Heirs and Assigns for ever, the same shall nevertheless come to such Lien, and upon and for such Terms, Intents, and Purposes, as will best correspond with the Uses, Trusts, Intent, and Purposes which for the Time being shall be subsisting concerning the said Leasehold Interest, or would be subsisting concerning the same if such Leasehold Interest were still in existence, or as near thereto as the Difference in the Nature of the Interests respectively will permit: Provided always, that every such perpetual Rent-charge shall be subject to such of the like Provisions for Apportionment in the Event of a Division of the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments for the Time being subject thereto, or to any Part thereof, as are in the said Act provided in relation to the new Rents to be reserved under the said Act, such Apportionment to be applied for and ascertained in the Manner and subject to the Regulations prescribed by the said Act, so far as the same are respectively applicable, or as near thereto as Circumstances will admit.

XXXIII. Assessment.

V. And be it further enacted, That if it shall be apparent, from the Deed making the Tenant to the Writ of Entry or other Writ for suffering a Common Recovery already suffered or hereafter to be suffered, that there is in the Exemplification, Record, or any of the Proceedings of such Recovery any Error in the Name of the Tenant, Demandant, or Vouchee in such Recovery, or any Misdescription or Omission of Lands intended to have been passed by such Recovery, then and in every such Case the Recovery, without any Amendment of the Exemplification, Record, or Proceedings in which such Error, Misdescription, or Omission shall have occurred, shall be as good and valid as the same would have been, and shall be held to have passed all the Lands intended to have been passed thereby, in the same Manner as it would have done if there had been no such Error, Misdescription, or Omission.

VII. And be it further enacted, That no Common Recovery, already suffered or hereafter to be suffered, shall be invalid in consequence of the Neglect to enrol in due Time a Bargain and Sale purporting to make the Tenant to the Writ of Entry or other Writ for suffering such Recovery, provided such Recovery would have been valid if the Bargain and Sale purporting to make the Tenant to the Writ had been duly enrolled.

Each of Two or more Owners of a prior Estate to

XX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where Two or more Persons shall be Owners, under a Settlement within the Meaning of this Act, of a prior Estate, the sole Owner of which Estate, if there had been only One, would in respect thereof have been the Protector of such Settlement, each of such Persons, in respect of such undivided Share as he could dispose of, shall for all the Purposes of this Act be deemed the Owner of a prior Estate, and shall, in exclusion of the other or others of them, be the sole Protector of such Settlement in the Extent of such undivided Share.

powered to dis-
not being vested

XXII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Thirty first Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four it shall be lawful for any Person, either before or after he shall become entitled in any Messuage, or as executor, Heir of a living Person, or as next of Kin of the Body of a living Person, to an Estate in Lands, not being a vested Estate, and whether he be or be not ascertained as the Person or One of the Persons in whom the same may become vested, to dispose of such Lands for the Whole or any Part of such Estate therein by any Assentance, whether Deed, Will, or any other Instrument by which he could have made such Disposition if such Estate were a vested Estate in Possession: Provided nevertheless, that no such Disposition shall be valid or have any Effect where the Person making the same shall not at the Time of the Disposition have become entitled to such Estate, unless the Deed, Will, or other Instrument by virtue of which he may become entitled be made and in operation at the Time of his Disposition.

As to Estates
confirmed or restored by Settlement.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That, except in the Case of a Lease herein-after provided for, where an Estate shall be limited by a Settlement by way of Confirmation, or where the Settlement shall merely have the Effect of restoring an Estate, in either of those Cases such Estate shall for the Purposes of this Act, as far as regards the Protector of the Settlement, be deemed an Estate subsisting under such Settlement.

As to Leases of Rent reserved by Settlement.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where a Lease at a Rent shall be created or confirmed by a Settlement, the Person in whose Favour such Lease shall be created or confirmed shall not in respect thereof be the Protector of such Settlement.

No Tenant in Descent, Heir,
Executor, &c.,
to be Protector,
except in the Case of a bare Trustee.

XXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Woman in respect of her Dowry, and (except in the Case herein-after provided for of a bare Trustee under a Settlement made before the Thirty-first Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four) no bare Trustee, Heir, Executor, Administrator, or Assignee, in respect of any Estate taken by him as such bare Trustee, Heir, Executor, Administrator, or Assignee, shall be the Protector of a Settlement.

XXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where under any Settlement there shall be more than One Estate prior to an Estate Tail, and the Person who shall be the Owner within the Meaning of this Act of any such prior Estate in respect of which but for the Two last preceding Clauses or either of them he would have been the Protector of the Settlement shall by virtue of such Clauses or either of them be excluded from being the Protector, then and in such Case the Person (if any) who if such Estate did not exist would be the Protector of the Settlement shall be such Protector.

XXVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where already, or before the Thirty-first Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, an Estate under a Settlement shall have been disposed of either absolutely or otherwise, and either for valuable Consideration or not, the Person who so respect of such Estate would if this Act had not been passed have been the proper Person to have made the Tenant to the Writ of Entry or other Writ for suffering a Common Recovery of the Lands entailed by such Settlements shall, during the Continuance of the Estate which conferred the Right to make the Tenant to such Writ of Entry or other Writ, be the Protector of such Settlements.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any Person having, either already, or before the Thirty-first Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, either for valuable Consideration or not, disposed of, either absolutely or otherwise, a Remainder or Reversion in Fee in any Lands, or created any Estate out of such Remainder or Reversion, would under this Act if this Clause had not been inserted have been the Protector of the Settlement by which the Lands were entailed in which such Remainder or Reversion may be subsisting, and thereby be enabled to encroach in the barring of such Remainder or Reversion, which he could not have done if he had not become such Protector, then and in every such Case the Person who if this Act had not been passed would have been the proper Person to have made the Tenant to the Writ of Entry or other Writ for suffering a Common Recovery of such Lands shall, during the Continuance of the Estate which conferred the Right to make the Tenant to such Writ of Entry or other Writ, be the Protector of such Settlements.

XXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where under any Settlement of Lands made before the passing of this Act the Person who if this Act had not been passed would have been the proper Person to make the Tenant to the Writ of Entry or other Writ for suffering a Common Recovery of such Lands for the Purpose of barring any Estate Tail or other Estate under such Settlement shall be a bare Trustee, such Trustee shall, during the Continuance of the Estate conferring on him the Right to make the Tenant to such Writ of Entry or other Writ, be the Protector of such Settlement.

XXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Settlor entailing Lands to appoint, by the Settlements by which the Lands shall be entailed, any Number of Persons in one, not exceeding Three, and not being Aliens, to be Protector of the Settlement in lieu of the Person who would have been the Protector if this Clause had not been inserted, and either for the Whole or any Part of the Period for which such Person might have continued Protector, and by means of a Power to be inserted in such Settlement to perpetuate during the Whole or any Part of such Period the Protectorship of the Settlement as any One Person or Number of Persons in one, and not being an Alien or Aliens, whom the Deed of the Power shall think proper by Deed to appoint Protector of the Settlement, in the Place of any One Person or Number of Persons who shall die, or shall by Deed relinquish his or their Office of Protector; and the Person or Persons so appointed shall, in case of there being no other Person than Protector of the Settlements, be the Protector, and shall, in case of there being any other Person than Protector of the Settlements, be Protector jointly with such other Person. Provided nevertheless, that by virtue or means of any such Appointment the Number of the Persons to compose the Protector shall never exceed Three: Provided further, nevertheless, that every Deed by which a Protector shall be appointed under a Power as a Settlement, and every Deed by which a Protector shall relinquish his Office, shall be void, unless enrolled in His Majesty's High Court of Chancery in Ireland within Six Calendar Months after the happening thereof: Provided further, nevertheless, that the Person who but for this Clause would have been sole Protector of the Settlement may be one of the Persons to be appointed Protector under this Clause, if the Settlor shall think fit, and shall, unless otherwise directed by the Settlor, act as sole Protector, if the other Persons constituting the Protector shall have consented to be so by Death, or by Relinquishment of the Office by Deed, and no other Person shall have been appointed in their Place.

XXXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person, Protector of a Settlement, shall be insane, idiot, or of unsound Mind, and whether he shall have been found such by Esquireton or not, then the Lord High Chancellor of Ireland, or the Lord Keeper, or the Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Ireland, for the Time being, or other the Person or Persons for the Time being intrusted by the King's Sign Manual with the Care and Management of the Custody of the Person and Estates of Persons found insane, idiot, and of unsound Mind, shall be the Protector of such Settlement in lieu of the Person who shall be such Lunatic or Idiot, or of unsound Mind as aforesaid; or if any Person, Protector of a Settlement, shall be convicted of Treason or Felony, or if any Person, not being the Owner of a prior Estate under a Settlement, shall be Protector of such Settlement, and shall be an Infane, or if it shall be necessary whether such last-mentioned Person be living or dead, then His Majesty's High Court of Chancery in Ireland shall be the Protector of such Settlement in lieu of the Person who shall be such Lunatic, or Idiot, or of unsound Mind, or convicted of Treason or Felony, or if any Person entailing Lands shall in the Settlements by which the Lands shall be entailed declare that the Person Who shall be the Trustee under the Owner of the prior Estate shall by the Two last Clauses be excluded.

Where, in the Disposition of an Estate before the 31st October 1834, the Person to make the Tenant to the Writ of Entry in a Recovery shall be the Protector

Where, in the Disposition of a Recovery before the 31st October 1834, the Person to make the Tenant to the Writ of Entry in a Recovery shall be the Protector

Where a bare Trustee under a Settlement shall be the Protector

Power to any Settlor to appoint the Protector.

In Case of Lunacy, the Lord Chancellor, the Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners, or other Persons intrusted with the Custody of the Person, or in Case of Treason or Felony, or, the Court of Chancery, to be the Protector who as Owner of a prior Estate under such Settlement would be entitled to be Protector of the Settlement, shall not be such Protector, and shall not appoint any Person to be Protector in his Stead, then the said Court of Chancery shall, as to the Lands in which such prior Estate shall be subsisting, be the Protector of the Settlement during the Continuance of such Estate; or if in any other Case where there shall be subsisting under a Settlement an Estate prior to an Estate Tail under the same Settlement, and such prior Estate shall be sufficient to qualify the Owner thereof to be Protector of the Settlement, and there shall happen at any Time to be no Protector of the Settlement as to the Lands in which the prior Estate shall be subsisting, the said Court of Chancery shall, while there shall be no such Protector, and the prior Estate shall be subsisting, be the Protector of the Settlement as to such Lands.

Where there is a Protector, his Consent requisite to enable an actual Tenant in Tail to make a larger Estate than a Base Fee.

XXXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if at the Time when any Person, actual Tenant in Tail of Lands under a Settlement, but not entitled to the Remainder or Reversion in Fee immediately expectant on the Determination of his Estate Tail, shall be desirous of making under this Act a Disposition of the Lands entailed, there shall be a Protector of such Settlement, then and in every such Case the Consent of such Protector shall be requisite to enable such actual Tenant in Tail to dispose of the Lands entailed in the full Extent to which he is herein-before authorized to dispose of the same; but such actual Tenant in Tail may without such Consent make a Disposition under this Act of the Lands entailed, which shall be good against all Persons who by force of any Estate Tail which shall be vested in or might be claimed by, or which but for some previous Act or Default would have been vested in or might have been claimed by, the Person making the Disposition at the Time of his making the same, shall claim the Lands entailed.

Where a Base Fee, and a Protector, his Consent requisite to the exercising of a Power of Disposition.

XXXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where an Estate Tail shall have been converted into a Base Fee, in such Case, so long as there shall be a Protector of the Settlement by which the Estate Tail was created, the Consent of such Protector shall be requisite to enable the Person who would have been Tenant of the Estate Tail if the same had not been barred to exercise, as to the Lands in respect of which there shall be such Protector, the Power of Disposition herein-before enacted.

The Protector to be subject to the Control in the Exercise of his Power of consenting.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That any Deceit, Shift, or Connivance by which it shall be attempted to control the Protector of a Settlement in giving his Consent, or to prevent him in any way from using his absolute Discretion in regard to his Consent, and also any Agreement entered into by the Protector of a Settlement to withhold his Consent, shall be void; and that the Protector of a Settlement shall not be deemed to be a Trustee in respect of his Power of Consent; and a Court of Equity shall not control or interfere to restrain the Exercise of his Power or Consent, nor treat his giving Consent as a Breach of Trust.

Common Rules of Equity not to apply between the Protector and a Tenant in Tail under the same.

XXXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Rules of Equity in relation to Dealings and Transactions between the Donee of a Power and any Object of the Power in whose Favour the same may be exercised shall not be held to apply to Dealings and Transactions between the Protector of a Settlement and a Tenant in Tail under the same Settlement, upon the Occasion of the Protector giving his Consent to a Disposition by a Tenant in Tail under this Act.

A voidable Estate by a Tenant in Tail, in favour of a Purchaser, confirmed by a subsequent Disposition of such Tenant in Tail under this Act, but not against a Purchaser without Notice.

XXXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That when a Tenant in Tail of Lands under a Settlement shall have already created or shall hereafter create in such Lands or any of them a voidable Estate in favour of a Purchaser for valuable Consideration, and shall afterwards under this Act, by any Assurance other than a Lease not requiring Investment, make a Disposition of the Lands in which such voidable Estate shall be created, or any of them, such Disposition, whatever its Object may be, and whatever may be the Extent of the Estate intended to be thereby created, shall, if made by the Tenant in Tail with the Consent of the Protector (if any) of the Settlement, or by the Tenant in Tail alone if there shall be no such Protector, have the Effect of confirming such voidable Estate in the Lands thereby disposed of to its full Extent as against all Persons except those whose Rights are saved by this Act; but if at the Time of making the Disposition there shall be a Protector of the Settlement, and such Protector shall not consent to the Disposition, and the Tenant in Tail shall not without such Consent be capable under this Act of confirming the voidable Estate to its full Extent, then and in such Case such Disposition shall have the Effect of confirming such voidable Estate so far as such Tenant in Tail would then be capable under this Act of confirming the same without such Consent: Provided always, that if such Disposition shall be made to a Purchaser for valuable Consideration, who shall not have express Notice of the voidable Estate, and if the Deed or Instrument creating such voidable Estate shall not have been registered previous to such Disposition, then and in such Case the voidable Estate shall not be confirmed as against such Purchaser and the Persons claiming under him.

Base Fees, when merged with the Intermediate Reversions, merged, instead of being merged.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That if a Base Fee in any Lands, and the Remainder or Reversion in Fee in the same Lands, shall at the Time of the passing of this Act, or at any Time afterwards, be united in the same Person, and at any Time after the passing of this Act there shall be no intermediate Estate between the Base Fee and the Remainder or Reversion, then and in such Case the Base Fee shall not merge, but shall be ipso facto enlarged into as large an Estate as the Tenant in Tail, with the Consent of the Protector, if any, might have created by any Disposition under this Act if such Remainder or Reversion had been vested in any other Person.

Tenant in Tail to make a Disposition by Deed, or if entailed in Fee, but not by Will or Con-

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Disposition of Lands under this Act by a Tenant in Tail thereof shall be effected by some one of the Assurances (not being a Will) by which such Tenant in Tail could have made the Disposition if his Estate were an Estate at Law in Fee Simple absolute in Fee, and that no Disposition by a Tenant in Tail shall be good or enforced by Deed; and that no Disposition by a Tenant in Tail, vesting only in Contract, either express or implied, or otherwise, and whether supported by a valuable or meritorious Consideration or not, shall be of any Force or in Equity under this Act, notwithstanding such Disposition shall be made or evidenced by Deed; and if the Tenant in Tail making the Disposition shall be a married Woman, the Concurrence of her Husband shall be necessary to give effect to the issue; and any Deed which may be executed by her for effecting the Disposition shall be acknowledged by her as herein after directed.

XXXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Assurance by which any Disposition of Lands shall be effected under this Act by a Tenant in Tail thereof (except a Lease for any Term not exceeding Twenty-one Years, to commence from the Date of such Lease, or from any Time not exceeding Twelve Calendar Months from the Date of such Lease, where a Rent shall be thereby reserved which at the Time of granting such Lease shall be a Rack Rent, or not less than Five Sixth Parts of a Rack Rent,) shall have any Operation under this Act unless it be enrolled in His Majesty's High Court of Chancery in Ireland within Six Calendar Months after the Execution thereof; and if the Assurance by which any Disposition of Lands shall be effected under this Act shall be a Bargain and Sale, such Assurance, although not enrolled within the Time prescribed by the Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King Charles the First, intituled An Act agreeing on Order for Uses, Wills, and Testaments, shall, if enrolled in the said Court of Chancery within the Time prescribed by this Clause, be as good and valid as the same would have been if the same had been enrolled in the said Court within the Time prescribed by the said Act of the Tenth Year of the Reign of King Charles the First.

XL. And be it further enacted, That the Consent of the Protector of a Settlement to the Disposition under this Act of a Tenant in Tail shall be given either by the assent Assurance by which the Disposition shall be effected, or by a Deed distinct from the Assurance, and to be executed either on or at any Time before the Day on which the Assurance shall be made, otherwise the Consent shall be void.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That if the Protector of a Settlement shall, by a distinct Deed, give his Consent to the Disposition of a Tenant in Tail, it shall be considered that such Protector has given an absolute and unqualified Consent, unless in such Deed he shall refer to the particular Assurance by which the Disposition shall be effected, and shall confine his Consent to the Disposition thereby made.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the Protector of a Settlement, who under this Act shall have given his Consent to the Disposition of a Tenant in Tail, to revoke such Consent.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That any married Woman, being either alone or jointly with her Husband Protector of a Settlement, may, under this Act, in the same Manner as if she were a Female Sole, give her Consent to the Disposition of a Tenant in Tail.

XLIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Consent of a Protector to the Disposition of a Tenant in Tail shall, if given by a Deed distinct from the Assurance by which the Disposition shall be effected by the Tenant in Tail, be void, unless such Deed be enrolled in His Majesty's High Court of Chancery either at or before the Time when the Assurance shall be enrolled.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That in Cases of Dispositions of Lands under this Act by Tenants in Tail thereof, and also in Cases of Consents by Protectors of Settlements to Dispositions of Lands under this Act by Tenants in Tail thereof, the Jurisdiction of Courts of Equity shall be altogether excluded, either on the Behalf of a Person claiming for a valuable or meritorious Consideration or not, in regard to the specific Performance of Contracts and the supplying of Defects in the Execution either by the Powers of Disposition given by this Act to Tenants in Tail, or of the Powers of Consent given by this Act to Protectors of Settlements and the supplying under any Circumstances of the Want of Execution of such Powers of Disposition and Consent respectively, and in regard to giving effect in any other Manner to any Act or Deed by a Tenant in Tail or Protector of a Settlement when as a Court of Law would not be an effectual Disposition or Consent under this Act; and that no Dispositions of Lands under this Act by a Tenant in Tail thereof in Equity, and no Consents by a Protector of a Settlement to a Disposition of Lands under this Act by a Tenant in Tail thereof in Equity, shall be of any Force, unless such Disposition or Consent would in case of an Estate Tail at Law be an effectual Disposition or Consent under this Act in a Court of Law.

XLVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in every Case in which the Lord High Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal, or other the Person or Persons intrusted with the Care and Commitment of the Custody of the Person and Estates of Persons found lunatic, idiot, and of unsound Mind, or His Majesty's High Court of Chancery in Ireland, shall be the Protector of a Settlement, such Lord High Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners, or Person or Persons so intrusted as aforesaid, or the said Court of Chancery (as the Case may be), while Protector of such Settlement, shall, on the Motion or Petition in a necessary Way by a Tenant in Tail under such Settlement, have full Power to consent to a Disposition under this Act by such Tenant in Tail, and the Disposition to be made by such Tenant in Tail upon such Motion or Petition as aforesaid shall be such as shall be approved of by such Lord High Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners, or Person or Persons so intrusted as aforesaid, or the said Court of Chancery (as the Case may be); and it shall be lawful for such Lord High Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners, or Person or Persons so intrusted as aforesaid, or the said Court of Chancery (as the Case may be), to make such Order in the Matter of such Disposition as shall be thought fit.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That any Commissioner acting in the Execution of any Commission which after the Thirty-first Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four shall be issued in pursuance of the said Act passed in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of King George the Third, under which any Person shall be adjudged a Bankrupt, who at the Time of issuing such Commission, or at any Time afterwards before he shall have obtained his Certificate, shall be an actual Tenant in Tail of Lands of any Tenure, shall by Deed dispose of such Lands to a Purchaser for valuable Consideration, for the Benefit of the Creditors of such actual Tenant in Tail, and shall create by any such Disposition as large an Estate in the Lands disposed of as the actual Tenant in Tail, if he had not become bankrupt, could have done under this Act at the Time of such Disposition: Provided always, that if at the Time of the Disposition of such Lands or any of them, by such Commissioner or aforesaid, there shall be a Protector of the Settlement by which the Estate of such actual Tenant in Tail in the Lands disposed of by such Commissioner was created, and the Consent of such Protector would have been requisite to have enabled the actual Tenant in Tail, if he had not become bankrupt, to have disposed of such Lands to the full Extent to which if there had been no such Protector he could under this Act have disposed of the same, and such Protector shall not consent to the Disposition, then and in such Case the Estate created in such Lands, or any of them, by the Disposition of such Commissioner, shall be so large an Estate as the actual Tenant in Tail, if he had not become bankrupt, could at the Time of such Disposition have created under this Act in such Lands without the Consent of the Protector.

sent of the Pro-

LI. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioner acting in the Execution of any such Commission as aforesaid under which a Person being, or before obtaining his Certificate becoming, an actual Tenant in Tail of Lands of any Tenure, or a Tenant in Tail entitled to a Base Fee in Lands of any Tenure, shall be adjudged a Bankrupt, shall, if there shall be a Protector of the Settlement by which the Estate Tail of such actual Tenant in Tail, or the Estate Tail converted into a Base Fee (as the Case may be), was created, stand in the Place of such actual Tenant in Tail, or Tenant in Tail so entitled as aforesaid, so far as regards the Consent of such Protector: and the Disposition of such Lands or any of them by such Commissioner as aforesaid, if made with the Consent of such Protector, shall, whether such Commissioner may have made under this Act a prior Disposition of the same Lands without the Consent of such Protector or not, or whether a lease Sale or Conveyance of the same Lands shall have been made or not, under the said Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of King George the Third, or any Acts hereafter to be passed concerning Bankrupts, have the same Effect as such Disposition would have had of such actual Tenant in Tail, or Tenant in Tail so entitled as aforesaid, had not he become bankrupt, and such Disposition, had he not become bankrupt, would have been made with the Consent of such Protector: and all the provisions Clauses in our Act, as regards the Consent of the Protector as the Disposition of a Tenant in Tail of Lands not held by Copy of Court Roll, and in regard to the Time and Manner of giving such Consent, and in regard to the Intestment of the Deed of Consent, where such Deed shall be distinct from the Assurance by which the Disposition of the Commissionee shall be effected, shall, except so far as the same may be varied by the Clause next hereon after contained, apply to every Consent that may be given by virtue of this present Clause.

LII. And be it further enacted, That every Deed by which any Commissionee acting in the Execution of any such Commission as aforesaid shall, under this Act, dispose of Lands, shall be void unless introlled in His Majesty's High Court of Chancery in Ireland within Six Calendar Months after the Execution thereof.

LIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Commissionee acting in the Execution of any such Commission as aforesaid shall, under this Act, dispose of any Lands of any Tenant of which the Bankrupt shall be actual Tenant in Tail, and in consequence of there being a Protector of the Settlement by which the Estate of such actual Tenant in Tail was created, and of his not giving his Consent, only a Base Fee shall by such Disposition be created in such Lands; and if at any Time afterwards during the Continuance of the Base Fee there shall cease to be a Protector of such Settlement, then and in such Case, and immediately thereupon, such Base Fee shall be enlarged into the same Estate into which the same could have been enlarged under this Act if at the Time of the Disposition by such Commissionee as aforesaid there had been no such Protector.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That if a Tenant in Tail entitled to a Base Fee in Lands of any Tenant shall be adjudged a Bankrupt at the Time when there shall be a Protector of the Settlement by which the Estate Tail converted into the Base Fee was created, and if such Lands shall be sold or conveyed under the said Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of King George the Third, or any other Act hereafter to be passed concerning Bankrupts, and if at any Time afterwards during the Continuance of the Base Fee in such Lands there shall cease to be a Protector of such Settlement, then and in such Case, and immediately thereupon, the Base Fee in such Lands shall be enlarged into the same Estate into which the same could have been enlarged under this Act if at the Time of the Adjudication of such Bankruptcy there had been no such Protector, and the Commissionee acting in the Execution of the Commission under which the Tenant in Tail as entitled shall have been adjudged a Bankrupt had disposed of such Lands under this Act.

LV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where an actual Tenant in Tail of Lands of any Tenant, or a Tenant in Tail entitled to a Base Fee in Lands of any Tenant, shall have already created or shall hereafter create in such Lands, or any of them, a voidable Estate in favour of a Purchaser for valuable Consideration, and such actual Tenant in Tail, or Tenant in Tail so entitled as aforesaid, shall be adjudged a Bankrupt under any such Commission as aforesaid, and the Commissionee acting in the Execution of such Commission shall make any Disposition under this Act of the Lands in which such voidable Estate shall be created, or any of them, then and in such Case, if there shall be no Protector of the Settlement by which the Estate Tail of the actual Tenant in Tail, or the Estate Tail converted into a Base Fee, as the Case may be, was created, or being such Protector he shall consent to the Disposition by such Commissionee as aforesaid, whether such Commissionee may have made under this Act a previous Disposition of such Lands, or not, or whether a prior Sale or Conveyance of the same Lands shall have been made or not under the said Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of King George the Third, or any other Acts hereafter to be passed concerning Bankrupts, the Disposition by such Commissionee shall have the Effect of confirming such voidable Estate in the Lands thereby disposed of to its full Extent as against all Persons, except those whose Rights are saved by this Act; and if at the Time of the Disposition by such Commissionee, in the Case of an actual Tenant in Tail, there shall be a Protector, and such Protector shall not consent to the Disposition by such Commissionee, and such actual Tenant in Tail, if he had not been adjudged a Bankrupt, would not without such Consent have been capable under this Act of confirming the voidable Estate in its full Extent, then and in such Case such Disposition shall have the Effect of confirming such voidable Estate so far as such actual Tenant in Tail, if he had not been adjudged a Bankrupt, could at the Time of such Disposition have been capable under this Act of confirming the same without such Consent; and if at any Time after the Disposition of such Lands by such Commissionee, and while only a Base Fee shall be subsisting in such Lands, there shall cease to be a Protector of such Settlement, and such Protector shall not have consented to the Disposition by such Commissionee, then and in such Case such voidable Estate, so far as the same may not have been previously confirmed, shall be confirmed in its full Extent as against all Persons except those whose Rights are saved by this Act: Provided always, that if the Disposition by any such Commissionee as aforesaid shall be made to a Purchaser for valuable Consideration, who shall not have express Notice of the voidable Estate, and if the Deed or Instrument making such voidable Estate shall not have been registered previous to such Disposition, then and in such Case the voidable Estate shall not be confirmed against such Purchaser and the Persons claiming under him.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That all Acts and Deeds done and executed by a Tenant in Tail of Lands of any Tenant who shall be adjudged a Bankrupt under any such Commission as aforesaid, and which shall affect such Lands or any of them, and which, if he had been seized of or entitled to such Lands in Fee Simple absolute, would have been void against the Assignees of the Bankrupt's Estate, and all Persons claiming under them, shall be void against any Disposition which may be made of such Lands under this Act by such Commissionee as aforesaid.

As to the Intestment of the Deed of Disposition of Lands.

Subsequent Enlargement of Base Fee created by the Disposition of the Commissionee.

Enlargement of Base Fee introlled in the Sale or Conveyance of the same under the Bankrupts Act.

A voidable Estate created in favour of a Purchaser by an actual Tenant in Tail becoming bankrupt, or by a Tenant in Tail entitled to a Base Fee becoming bankrupt, confirmed by the Disposition of the Commissionee, if no Protector, or being such with his Consent, or in his consent to be a Protector; but not against a Purchaser without Notice.

Acts of a Bankrupt Tenant in Tail void against any Disposition under this Act by the Commissionee.

Six Calendar Months after the Execution thereof, and not in His Majesty's High Court of Chancery in Ireland.

LXII. And be it further enacted, That after the Thirty-first Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four an Act passed in the Fifty-eighth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for Relief of Persons entitled to Entailed Estates to be purchased with Trust Money in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, and also an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled An Act for relieving an Act passed in the Thirty-sixth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act for the Relief of Persons entitled to entailed Estates to be purchased with Trust Money, and for making further Provision in that behalf', shall be and the same are hereby repealed, except as to such Proceedings under the Acts hereby repealed as shall have been commenced before the First Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, and which may be continued under the Authority and according to the Provisions of the Acts hereby repealed.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That Lands to be sold, whether Freehold or Leasehold, or of any other Tenure, where the Money arising from the Sale thereof shall be subject to be invested in the Purchase of Lands to be settled, so that any Person, if the Lands were purchased, would have an Estate Tail therein, and also Money subject to be invested in the Purchase of Lands to be settled, so that any Person, if the Lands were purchased, would have an Estate Tail therein, shall for all the Purposes of this Act be treated as the Lands to be purchased, and be considered subject to the same Estates as the Lands to be purchased would, if purchased, have been actually subject to; and all the previous Clauses in this Act, so far as Circumstances will admit, shall in the Case of the Lands to be sold as aforesaid, being either Freehold or Leasehold, or of any other Tenure, apply to such Lands in the same Manner as if the Lands to be purchased with the Money to arise from the Sale thereof were directed to be Freehold, and were actually purchased and settled, and shall, in the Case of Money subject to be invested in the Purchase of Lands to be settled as aforesaid, apply to such Money in the same Manner as if such Money were directed to be laid out in the Purchase of Freehold Lands, and such Lands were actually purchased and settled; and except that in every Case where under this Clause a Disposition shall be to be made of Leasehold Lands for Years, absolute or determinable, so circumstanced as aforesaid, or of Money so circumstanced as aforesaid, such Leasehold Lands or Money shall, as to the Person in whose Favour or for whose Benefit the Disposition is to be made, be treated as Personal Estate; and except in case of Bankruptcy the Assent by which the Disposition of such Leasehold Lands or Money shall be effected shall be an Assent by Deed, which shall have no Operation under this Act, unless enrolled in His Majesty's High Court of Chancery within Six Calendar Months after the Execution thereof; and in every Case of Bankruptcy the Disposition of such Leasehold Lands or Money shall be made by the Commissioner, and completed by Instrument in the same Manner as heretofore required in regard to Lands.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That, so far as regards any Person adjudged a Bankrupt under any such Commission as aforesaid, the Provisions of the Clause lastly herein-before contained shall, for the Benefit of the Creditors of the Bankrupt, apply to Lands in England to be sold, whether Freehold or Leasehold or of any other Tenure, where the Money arising from the Sale thereof shall be subject to be invested in the Purchase of Lands to be settled so that the Bankrupt, if the Lands were purchased, would have an Estate Tail therein, and also to Money under the Control of any Court of Equity in England, or of or to which any Individuals as Trustees may be possessed or entitled in England, and which shall be subject to be invested in the Purchase of Lands to be settled so that the Bankrupt, if the Lands were purchased, would have an Estate Tail therein, as fully and effectually as if this Act had throughout extended to England: Provided always, that every Deed to be executed by any Commissioner or Protector, as purchaser of this Clause, in regard to Lands in England to be so sold as aforesaid, shall be enrolled in His Majesty's High Court of Chancery in England within Six Calendar Months after the Execution thereof; but every Deed to be executed by any Commissioner or Protector in pursuance of this Clause, in regard to Money subject to be invested in the Purchase of Lands to be so settled as aforesaid, shall be enrolled in His Majesty's High Court of Chancery in Ireland within Six Calendar Months after the Execution thereof, and not in His Majesty's High Court of Chancery in England.

LXV. And be it further enacted, That any Rule or Practice requiring Deeds to be acknowledged before Inrolment shall not apply to any Deed by this Act required to be enrolled in His Majesty's High Court of Chancery in Ireland.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That every Deed required to be enrolled in His Majesty's High Court of Chancery in Ireland, by which Lands, or Money subject to be invested in the Purchase of Lands, shall be disposed of under this Act, shall, when enrolled as required by this Act, operate and take effect in the same Manner as it would have done if the Inrolment thereof had not been required, except that every such Deed shall be void against any Person claiming the Lands or Money thereby disposed of, or any Part thereof, for valuable Consideration, under any subsequent Deed duly enrolled under this Act, if such subsequent Deed shall be first enrolled.

LXVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty's High Court of Chancery in Ireland, as in Deeds to be enrolled in Ireland under this Act, from Time to Time to make such Orders as the Court shall think fit touching the Amount of the Fees and Charges to be paid for the Inrolment of such Deeds, and to be paid for Searches for such Deeds in the Office of the Registrar, and

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the First Year of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for the more effectual Administration of Justice in England and Wales, the Jurisdiction, Power, and Authority of His Majesty's Court of Session of the County Palatine of Chester, and of the Judges thereof, was abolished: and it was, among other Things, enacted, that the Assizes should be held for the Trial and Dispatch of all Matters Criminal and Civil within the County of Chester, under and by virtue of Commissions of Assize, Oyer and Terminer, Gaol Delivery, and other Writs and Commissions to be issued in like Manner and Form as had been usual for the Counties in England, and that all Laws and Statutes then in force relating to the Execution of such Commissions when issued for Counties in England should extend and be applied to the Execution of the Commissions issued for the County of Chester under the Authority of that Act; and it was provided and enacted, that nothing in that Act contained should be construed to abolish or affect the Obligations and Duties or the Jurisdiction or Rights then lawfully imposed upon, performed, or claimed and exercised by the Mayor and Citizens of Chester in the Courts of the County of the City of Chester or otherwise, save and except that such Writs of Error or false Judgments as might then by any Charter or Usage of the said Corporation be brought upon the Judgments of the said Courts, or any of them, before any of the Courts abolished by that Act, should thereafter be issued, as in other Cases, from superior Courts, and be returnable into His Majesty's Court of King's Bench: And whereas before the passing of the said Act the Sheriffs of the County of the City of Chester were by Law liable, and were used and accustomed, to execute all Criminals convicted and condemned to Death and ordered for Execution for Offences committed within the County Palatine of Chester: And whereas since the passing of the said Act the Sheriffs of the County of the City of Chester have executed Criminals convicted for Offences committed within the County of Chester, and sentenced to Death by Commissions issued under the Authority of the said Act, but Doubts are entertained whether the Sentence of Death pronounced on Criminals for Offences committed within the County of Chester ought to be executed by the Sheriff of the County or by the Sheriffs of the County of the City of Chester: For the Removal therefore of such Doubts, and for better effecting the Intention of the said Act, be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act the Sheriffs of the County of the City of Chester for the Time being shall execute the Sentence of Death upon all Criminals condemned to die for Offences committed within the County of Chester; and the Judges, or any One of them, named in the Commissions of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery issued or from Time to Time to be issued for the County of Chester, shall have full Power and Authority to make such Orders on the Constable of the Castle of Chester for delivering such Criminals to the Sheriffs of the County of the City of Chester, and on the said Sheriffs for the Execution of such Criminals by the said Sheriffs, as such Judges or

" II. ' And whereas sometimes Persons have withdrawn themselves beyond the Seas, or otherwise absconded, to avoid appearing in Courts of Equity, or being served with Process for that Purpose, or being brought into Court by Habeas Corpus, have refused to appear; for Remedy of the Inconvenience thence ensuing, be it further enacted, That if in any Suit, not being for the Foreclosure of a Mortgage, which hath been or hereafter shall be commenced in any Court of Equity, any Defendant against whom any Subpoena or other Process shall issue shall not come his Appearance to be entered upon such Process within such Time and in such Manner as according to the Rules of the Court the same ought to have been entered in case such Process had been duly served, and an Affidavit or Affidavits shall be made to the Satisfaction of such Court that such Defendant is beyond the Seas, or that upon Inquiry at his usual Place of Abode he could not be found so as to be served with such Process, and that there is just Ground to believe that such Defendant is gone out of the Realm, or has otherwise absconded to avoid being served with the Process of such Court, then and in such Case the Court out of which such Process issued may make an Order directing and appointing such Defendant to appear at a certain Day thence to be named; and a Copy of such Order shall, within Fourteen Days after such Order made, be inserted in the Dublin Gazette, and published on some Lord's Day immediately after Divine Service in the Parish Church where such Defendant made his usual Abode within Thirty Days next before such his absenting, and also a Copy of such Order shall within the Time aforesaid be posted up in some public Place at the Royal Exchange in Dublin; and if the Defendant do not appear within the Time limited by such Order, or within such further Time as the Court shall appoint, then, on Proof made of such Publication of such Order as aforesaid, the Court, being satisfied of the Truth thereof, may order the Plaintiff's Bill to be taken pro Confesso, and make such Decree thereupon as shall be thought just, and may thereupon issue Process to compel the Performance of such Decree, either by so immediate Requisition of the Real and Personal Estate and Effects of the Party so absconding (if any such can be found), or such Part thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the Demands of the Plaintiff in the said Suit, or by causing Possession of the Estate or Effects demanded by the Bill to be delivered to the Plaintiff, or otherwise, as the Nature of the Case shall require; and the said Court may likewise order such Plaintiff to be paid and satisfied his Demands out of the Estate or Effects so sequestered, according to the true Intent and Meaning of such Decree, such Plaintiff first giving sufficient Security in such Suit as the Court shall think proper to abide concerning the Restitution of such Estate or Effects as the Court shall think proper to make concerning the same upon the Defendant's Appearance to defend such Suit, and paying such Costs to the Plaintiff as the Court shall order; but in case such Plaintiff shall refuse or neglect to give such Security as aforesaid, then the said Court shall order the Estate or Effects as sequestered, or whosoever the Possession shall be decreed to be delivered, to remain under the Direction of the Court, either by appointing a Receiver thereof, or otherwise, as to such Court shall seem meet, until the Appearance of the Defendant to defend such Suit, and his paying such Costs to the Plaintiff as the said Court shall think reasonable, or until such Order shall be made thereon as the Court shall think just.

and Things had been admitted to be true by the Answer of the Defendant put in to such Bill; and such Bill so taken pro Confessio shall be received and taken in Evidence of such and the same Facts, and on behalf of such and so many Persons, as the Answer of the Defendant to the said Bill could and might have been read and received in Evidence in case such Answer had been put in by the Defendant therein, and had submitted the same Facts, Matters, and Circumstances as in such Bill stated and set forth; and in like Manner every other Bill of Discovery taken pro Confessio, under any of the Provisions of this Act, shall or may be taken and read as Evidence of the Facts and Matters and Things therein contained, to the Extent aforesaid.

by the Authority of the same, That no Person shall be liable to be detained against his Consent in the Naval Service of His Majesty for a longer Period than Five Years, to be computed from the Day of his being entered into the same, unless he shall have voluntarily entered for a longer Term, and except as hereinafter provided; and that at the Expiration of such Period of continuous Service he shall, upon his Application for that Purpose, be entitled to be discharged; and if the Ship on board which he shall be serving be in any Part of the United Kingdom he shall be forthwith discharged; and in Cases of Men serving on board Ships absent from the United Kingdom, the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, shall cause the necessary Orders and Instructions to be given to all Admirals and other Officers in Command of His Majesty's Ships, that about the Time when the Period of their respective Services, shall expire every Person entitled to his Discharge, on signifying to his Captain or Commanding Officer his Wish no longer to continue in the Service, shall be discharged forthwith, if he desire it, or shall be sent by the earliest convenient Opportunity, in some Ship of His Majesty, to some Part of the United Kingdom, to be there discharged: Provided always nevertheless, that if the Admiral or Commanding Officer of the Fleet or Squadron under whose Command he shall be shall, in consequence of any special Emergency, deem it hazardous to the Public Service forthwith to discharge him, then such Admiral or Commanding Officer shall have Power to detain him in the Service for a further Period of Six Calendar Months, or until such Emergency shall have ceased; and in every such Case the Person so detained shall be entitled to receive for such extra Service One Fourth in addition to the Pay of his Rating: Provided also, that if any Seaman shall be under lawful Arrest at the Period at which he shall be so entitled to his Discharge, then such Discharge shall not take place until such Arrest shall have ceased, or, in case he shall have been put under Arrest in order to be brought to Trial for any Offence, and he shall have been tried for such Offence, and have undergone the Punishment to which he may be adjudged for the same by Sentence of Court-martial: And provided farther, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to exempt any Person so entitled to his Discharge from the Performance of the Duties of his Station until he shall have been actually discharged; and that every such Person, so long as he shall be in the Service, shall be accountable and subject to the Discipline of the Navy, and to the several Provisions of the Laws in being relating to the Government of His Majesty's Ships, Yachts, and Forces by Sea.

II. And be it further enacted, That every such Seaman who may have served the said Term of Five Years, when any Proclamation of His Majesty calling for the Services of Seafaring Men shall have been in force, shall, upon being discharged from the Navy, be entitled to receive from the Captain or Commanding Officer of the Ship from which he shall be so discharged a Certificate of his Service therein, containing a Description of his Age, Person, and Place of Birth, upon the Production at the Admiralty Office of which and of similar Certificates as to his Service in any other of His Majesty's Ships in which he may have served during such Period of Five Years, (all which Certificates the Captains of such Ships are hereby required to give him on his Discharge from the same respectively,) and upon a Comparison of the Dates and Particulars to be expressed in such Certificates with the Muster Books of the several Ships in which he shall have served, provided the Particulars shall be found correct and the Certificates be found genuine, a Protection from Service in the Navy for the Space of Two Years shall be issued to every such Seaman gratis, under the Hand of Two or more of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral and the Seal of the Office of Admiralty, in such Form as the said Commissioners shall think fit: Provided always, that if any such Seaman shall be discharged, except upon his own Application, before the Term of his Service shall amount to Five Years as aforesaid, a Protection shall be granted to him for the Space of One Year only.

III. And in order to prevent as far as may be Breach and Impediments with respect to Protections, be it further enacted, That if any Person shall forge or counterfeit any Certificate of Service in His Majesty's Navy, or any Instrument purporting to be a Protection from such Service, or shall fraudulently utter or publish any forged Certificate of such Service, or any forged Instrument purporting to be a Protection from such Service, knowing the same to be forged, or shall fraudulently alter any Certificate or Protection which shall have been duly granted or issued, or if any Person shall forge or fraudulently alter any Extract from a Baptismal Register, or shall knowingly utter any false or fraudulently altered Extract from a Baptismal Register, or any false Affidavit, Certificate, or other Document, as well as to obtain from the Admiralty Office a Protection from His Majesty's Naval Service for himself or any other Person, or if any Person, being in the Possession of a Protection, shall lend, sell, or dispose thereof to any other Person, in order fraudulently to enable such other Person to make an unlawful Use of the same; or if any Person shall produce, utter, or make use of as a Protection for himself any Protection which shall have been issued or issued for any other Individual; every Person in any such Manner offending shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, and such Protection shall thereupon be null and void.

IV. And for the Encouragement of Seamen and others to enter into His Majesty's Naval Service, be it further enacted, That every Seaman, Seafaring Man, or other Person who within Six Days after any Proclamation of His Majesty calling for the Services of Seafaring Men shall have been published in any Part of the United Kingdom or of any of His Majesty's Dominions, shall at such Port enter himself in His Majesty's Naval Service with any Officer authorized to receive Volunteers for the Royal Navy, shall, in addition to the Advantages given to Volunteers by an Act of the Eleventh Year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, be added and consolidated the Laws relating to the Pay of the Royal Navy, be entitled to receive Double the Amount (according to his Rating) of the Bounty offered by any such Proclamation;

Proclamation; and that in the Cases of Seamen serving in Merchant Vessels which shall be at Sea at the Time when any such Proclamation shall be issued, every such Person who shall enter himself with an Officer of the Navy within Six Days after the first Arrival of any such Ship at any such Port as aforesaid, or within Half an Hour after any Office of His Majesty's Navy shall have visited any such Ship before her Arrival at any such Port, shall also be entitled to receive the like Double Bounty.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Seamen who shall at the Time of the issuing of any such Proclamation as aforesaid be serving in the Fleet shall not be entitled to be discharged, but shall continue to serve therein for a Period of Five Years, in case their Services shall be so long required; and in consideration of their being so required to continue in the Service for such further Period they shall be entitled to receive and shall be paid the same Amount of Bounty as shall by any Order in Council or Proclamation of His Majesty then in force be offered to Seamen of these respective Classes, and shall also be entitled to their Discharge at the Expiration of that Period, in the same Manner and under Regulations similar to those established by this Act with respect to Volunteer Seamen.

VI. And as no Encouragement to Seamen to continue in the Naval Service, be it further enacted, That every Seaman belonging to the Fleet whose Period of Five Years Service shall expire during the Time when any such Proclamation as aforesaid shall be in force, and who previous to the Expiration of such Service shall signify to his Commanding Officer his Desire to continue therein for a further Period of Five Years, and shall be allowed to re-enter accordingly, shall upon such Re-entry be entitled to be paid the single Bounty offered by His Majesty's Proclamation to Volunteers of his Class and Rating; and every such Volunteer shall at the Expiration of such Second Period of Five Years be entitled to his Discharge, under and subject to the like Regulations as are herein-before provided with respect to Persons entitled to their Discharge after Five Years Service.

VII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Seaman in the Receipt of a Pension for Wounds or prior Services, and being able-bodied, and fit for the Naval Service, shall, when any such Proclamation as aforesaid shall be in force, voluntarily enlist, and shall be received to serve in the Navy, he shall, in addition to the Pay and other Advantages to which he may be entitled, be allowed to receive such Pension during the Time he shall continue in such further Service and in the faithful Discharge of his Duty.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all the Provisions contained in this Act in favour of Volunteers shall be extended to the Seamen belonging to the British Colonies who shall freely enter themselves to serve in the Navy; and that all such Colonial Seamen, after being discharged at the Expiration of Five Years Service, in case they shall be desirous to return to their native Colony, shall either be conveyed thither free of Expence, or be allowed a Gratuity in Money sufficient to cover the Cost of their Return thereto, as the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral shall think fit.

IX. An Act to extend the Accommodation by the Post to and from Foreign Parts, and for other Purposes relating to the Post Office. [21st August 1835.]

WHEREAS by virtue of divers Acts of Parliament His Majesty's Postmaster General is authorized, to and for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to demand, have, receive, and take certain Rates of Passage for the Conveyance of Letters and Packets by the Post between the United Kingdom and Foreign Parts: And whereas, in addition to the said Rates, such Letters and Packets are subject to Rates of Postage for their Conveyance within Foreign Kingdoms and States: And whereas it is expedient, for the Purpose of facilitating the Intercourse with Foreign Countries, that the Postage, as well British as Foreign, on such Letters and Packets, should be payable in whole or in part either by the Sender or Receiver: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty's Postmaster General for the Time being, and his Deputies, and he and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to receive and take, upon any Letters or Packets addressed to any Foreign Kingdom or State, from the Person sending the same, the Postage both British and Foreign in one entire Sum, for the Conveyance of such Letters and Packets by the Post to the Places to which the same shall be respectively addressed, and also to demand, receive, and take of the said Senders and Recipients of such Letters and Packets Act may be amended this Session.

Postage on Letters to and from Foreign Parts to be taken in one entire Sum.

Packets coming from Foreign Parts addressed to any Place within His Majesty's Dominions, in addition to the British Rates of Postage to which the same may be liable, the Rates of Foreign Postage which may be due or payable in respect thereof, and to answer for or pay over to any Foreign Kingdom or State, Kingdoms or States, entitled to receive the same, the Amount of such Foreign Postage.

Optional Payment of Postage on Letters or Foreign Parts.

II. And he it further enacted, That from and after the Postmaster General for the Time being shall have made and entered into any Treaty or Agreement with the Post Office of any Foreign Kingdom or State for collecting and accounting for the British Postage on Letters and Packets sent by the Post from the United Kingdom to any such Foreign Kingdom or State, or to any other Foreign Kingdom or State, and so long as any such Treaty or Agreement shall continue in force, it shall be lawful with every Person sending any Letter or Packet by the Post from the United Kingdom to any Foreign Kingdom or State which shall be included in any such Treaty or Agreement, or to which the same shall extend, to pay the British and Foreign Postage thereof in one entire Sum as aforesaid, or to send the same without Payment of any Part of such entire Sum, to the Person that the whole thereof may be paid by the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be addressed, or otherwise to pay the British Postage only (as hitherto) on any such Letter or Packet.

III. And he it further enacted, That the Rates of Foreign Postage worked on any Letters or Packets brought into Great Britain or Ireland shall, in all Courts of Justice and other Places, be deemed, received, and taken as conclusive Evidence of the Amount of Foreign Postage payable in respect of any such Letter or Packet, in addition to the Rates of British Postage payable for the Conveyance of the same; and such Foreign Postage shall be recoverable in Great Britain and Ireland, and other His Majesty's Dominions, as Postage due and payable to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors.

IV. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That nothing herein or in any other Act or Acts contained shall be construed to entitle any Person or Persons to send or receive by the Post, free from the Duties of Postage, any Letters or Packets which are or may be liable to any Foreign Rates of Postage (the Public Despatches to and from His Majesty's Secretaries of State, and the British Embassies and Legations at Foreign Courts, being bona fide on the Public Service, only excepted).

Registering certain Letters.

V. And whereas it may be considered expedient that certain Letters and Packets sent by the Post should be registered, he it therefore further enacted, That in case the Postmaster General for the Time being shall at any Time hereafter in his Discretion deem it expedient that any Letters or Packets sent or to be sent by the Post should be registered by the Post Office, it shall be lawful for him, and his Deputy and Deputies by him thereto authorized, to demand, have, receive, and take, to and for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for and in respect of each and every Letter or Packet which shall be so registered, such Rate or Rates of Postage, in addition to any Rates payable under or by virtue of this Act or any other Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Post Office, as the Postmaster General for the Time being, with the Consent of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, signified by Writing under their Hands, or under the Hand of any one of the Secretaries or Assistant Secretaries to the Treasury for the Time being, shall from Time to Time direct or appoint, (but such Registration shall not render the Postmaster General or the Post Office Liable in any Manner liable for the Loss of any such Letters or Packets, or the Contents thereof,) all which Letters and Packets shall be delivered to the Postmaster General and his Deputy and Deputies, and also be delivered by them at or between such Hours in the Day, and under all such Regulations in every respect as the Postmaster General for the Time being shall in his Discretion from Time to Time appoint, with full Power for him to require such Registration Rate or Rates to be paid on any such Letter or Packet being put into the Post Office.

Packet Postage.

VI. And whereas Letters and Packets sent by the Post between Dover and Calais are now chargeable with the same Rates of Postages as Letters sent between London and Calais; and it is expedient to reduce the same; he it therefore further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for His Majesty's Postmaster General, and his Deputy and Deputies by him thereto authorized, to and for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to demand, have, receive, and take, for the Post and Conveyance of all Letters and Packets which shall be sent or conveyed by Packet Boats from or to the Port of Dover, or any other Port in Great Britain, or to or from the Port of Calais, or any other Port in France, and not sent to or from London (over and above any inland Rates payable on such Letters and Packets), a Packet Postage according to the Rates and Sums hereinafter mentioned: (that is to say,) for the Post and Conveyance of every Single Letter, a Rate of Sixpence; for every Double Letter, One Shilling; for every Triple Letter, One Shilling and Sixpence, and for every Ounce Weight, Two Shillings, and so in proportion for any greater Weight, reckoning every Quarter of an Ounce equal to a Single Letter: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to alter or repeal an Act passed in the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to regulate the Conveyance of printed Newspapers by Post between the United Kingdom, the British Colonies, and Foreign Parts.

Postmaster General empowered to reduce Postage on Letters to and from Foreign Parts.

VII. And he it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Postmaster General for the Time being, at any Time hereafter, to lower or reduce all or any of the British Rates of Postage which are or shall be payable on Letters and Packets sent by the Post to and from Foreign Parts, to such respective Amounts or Extents as the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, signified by Writing under their Hands, or under the Hand of any one of the Secretaries or Assistant Secretaries to the Treasury for the Time being, shall from Time to Time direct or appoint, and therewith it shall be lawful for the Postmaster General and his Deputies to demand,

VIII. * And whereas by an Act passed in the Thirty sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intitled An Act for the more secure Conveyance of Ship Letters, and for granting to His Majesty certain Rates of Postage thereon, the Postmaster General is authorized to collect and receive Letters and Packets of Letters, directed to Places within His Majesty's Dominions, also to any the Kingdoms and Countries beyond the Seas, and to forward the same by any Ships or Vessels that he in his Discretion shall think fit, although not Packet Boats, and to demand and receive, to and for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for every Letter and Packet which shall be delivered to him and his Deputies for Conveyance in the Manner therein-before specified, a Sum not less than One Half Part of the Rates and Duties payable by Law for such respective Letters and Packets if the same were conveyed by Packet Boats, and in Cases where no Rate of Postage is already established, then to demand and receive for such Letters and Packets Rates, as near as the same can be ascertained, equal to One Half of what is paid for Letters sent beyond the Seas: And whereas it is expedient that the Rates of Postage imposed by the said Act should be reduced; he it therefore enacted, That the Rates of Postage granted by the said last-mentioned Act for the Conveyance of Letters and Packets through the Post, by Ships or Vessels not being Packet Boats, shall be and the same are hereby repealed, and that in lieu thereof it shall and may be lawful to and for His Majesty's Postmaster General for the Time being, and his Deputy and Deputies by him thereto authorized, as he and their Discretion, to collect and receive Letters and Packets of Letters, directed to Places within His Majesty's Dominions, also to any the Kingdoms and Countries beyond the Seas, and to forward the same by any Ships or Vessels that he in his Discretion shall think fit, although not Packet Boats or Ships or Vessels by which the Postmaster General shall have contracted for the Conveyance of Mails of Letters pursuant to an Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, intitled An Act to enable His Majesty's Postmaster General to extend the Accommodation by Post, and to regulate the Privileges of franking, in Ireland; and for other Purposes relating to the Post Office; and that it shall be lawful for His said Majesty's Postmaster General, and his Deputy and Deputies by him thereto authorized, to and for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to demand, have, receive, and take, for every Letter and Packet which shall be delivered to him or his Deputies for Conveyance in manner lastly herein-before mentioned, (except Letters and Packets sent by private Ships from Great Britain to Ireland, or from Ireland to Great Britain, or between any Parts or Places in Great Britain or Ireland,) the Rates of Postage hereinafter mentioned: (that is to say,) if such Letter or Packet be posted at the Port from which such Ship or Vessel shall sail, or at which such Ship or Vessel may touch, a Rate of Eight-pence for every Single Letter, and so in proportion for Packets: and if in proportion for Packets: and if such Letter or Packet shall be posted at any other Part of the United Kingdom than the Port from which such Ship or Vessel shall sail, or at which such Ship or Vessel may touch, a Rate of One Shilling for every Single Letter, and so in proportion for Packets: and for every Letter or Packet which shall be delivered to the Postmaster General or his Deputies for Conveyance in manner lastly herein-before mentioned, from Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to Great Britain, or from any Part or Place in Great Britain or Ireland to any other Port or Place within the same, or either of them, a Rate of Eight pence on every Single Letter, and so in proportion as aforesaid for Packets, over and above and in addition to any Rates which may arise on the Island Conveyance of such last-mentioned Letters or Packets within Great Britain and Ireland: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be deemed or construed to extend, to alter or repeal any of the Rates which the Postmaster General and his Deputy and Deputies are authorized to demand, have, receive, and take for Letters and Packets delivered to him or them for Conveyance to Cyprus, the Mauritius, the East Indies, or the Cape of Good Hope, by an Act passed in the Fifty-seventh Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intitled An Act to repeal so much of an Act passed in the Fifth and Sixth Year of His present Majesty as relates to the Postage and Conveyance of Letters to and from the Cape of Good Hope, Ceylon, the Mauritius, and the East Indies; and to such other Regulations respecting the Postage of such Letters and Packets, and other Letters and Packets sent by the Post; but the Provisions of this Clause shall nevertheless be deemed and construed to extend to and include Letters and Packets directed to China.

IX. And for the Encouragement of the Masters of such Ships or Vessels, be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful to and for the said Postmaster General to allow all such Masters the Sum of Two-pence a Letter or Packet upon all such Letters or Packets as they shall respectively have or take on board such Ship or Vessel, provided such Letters and Packets shall have been delivered to them from the Post Office.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent any Person or Persons, at his or their Discretion, from sending any Letters or Packets by any Ship or Vessel (not being a Packet Boat or Ship or Vessel) by which the Postmaster General shall have contracted for the Conveyance of Mails of Letters pursuant to the said Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, from any Port to any Place out of Great Britain or Ireland, otherwise than through the Post Office: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize or empower any Person or Persons to make any Collection of Letters contrary to the Laws now in force relating to the Post Office.

XI. * And whereas it is expedient that the Rates on Letters brought into that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland by Ships other than Packet Boats should be assimilated to the Rates on Ship Letters brought into Great Britain; he it therefore further enacted, That from and after the passing

XV. And whereas by an Act passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Duties of Postage in Great Britain and Ireland, the Postmaster General is authorized to demand and receive for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for every Newspaper printed within His Majesty's Colonies and Possessions beyond the Seas, and brought into Great Britain and Ireland by any Ship other than a Packet, and delivered at any Post Office, the Sum of Three-pence: And whereas Newspapers printed within the United Kingdom, and sent from thence by Ships and Vessels (other than Packet Boats) to His Majesty's Colonies and Possessions beyond the Seas (other than and except the East Indies), are now liable to the same Rates and Duties of Postage as Letters: And whereas it is expedient that the Rates of Postage on all such Newspapers should be reduced; be it therefore further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act as much of the said Act passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of King George the Fourth as subjects Newspapers printed within His Majesty's Colonies and Possessions beyond the Seas, and brought into Great Britain and Ireland by Ships other than Packets, to a Rate of Three-pence each, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty's Postmaster General for the Time being, and his Deputy and Deputies in Great Britain and Ireland, to receive at any Post Office printed Newspapers liable to the Stamp Duty, and duly stamped, directed to Places within any of His Majesty's Colonies and Possessions beyond the Seas, and to forward the same by any Ships or Vessels that he in his Discretion may think fit (not being Packet Boats), and to demand, have, receive, and take for every Newspaper which shall be delivered to him or his Deputies for Conveyance in manner last aforesaid the Sum of One Penny.

XVIII. And whereas Foreign Newspapers brought into the United Kingdom by Ships or Vessels other than Packet Boats, and Newspapers printed within the United Kingdom, and sent from thence by Ships and Vessels other than Packet Boats to Foreign Parts, are now liable, on Conveyance by the Post, to the same Rates and Duties of Postage as Letters; and it is expedient that the Rates on all such Newspapers should be reduced; be it therefore further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for His Majesty's Postmaster General, and his Deputy and Deputies in Great Britain and Ireland, to receive at any Post Office printed Newspapers liable to the Stamp Duty and duly stamped, directed to any Kingdom or Country beyond the Seas (other than His Majesty's Colonies and Possessions), and to forward the same to any Foreign Port by any Ships or Vessels that he in his Discretion may think fit (not being Packet Boats), and to demand, have, receive, and take, for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for every Newspaper which shall be delivered to him or his Deputies for Conveyance to any Place beyond the Seas (other than His Majesty's Colonies and Possessions), and brought into the United Kingdom by any Ship or Vessel (other than a Packet Boat), and delivered by the Commander of any such Ship or Vessel at any Post Office, if printed in the Language of the Foreign Kingdom or State from which the same shall be forwarded, but not otherwise; it shall be lawful for His Majesty's Postmaster General and his Deputy and Deputies, for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to demand and receive the Sum of One Penny as Delivery thereof within the United Kingdom to the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be addressed: Provided always, that before any Newspapers to or from any Foreign Kingdom or State shall be permitted to be conveyed or delivered under the Provisions of this Clause satisfactory Proof shall have been laid before the Postmaster General for the Time being, that printed Newspapers sent from Great Britain and Ireland, addressed to any Person or Place in any such Foreign Kingdom or State, are allowed to pass by the Post within any such Foreign Kingdom or State free of Postage, and also that Newspapers addressed to any Person or Place in Great Britain or Ireland from any such Foreign Kingdom or State are allowed to pass by the Post within such Foreign Kingdom or State free of Postage; and it is hereby declared, that as to every Newspaper sent into any Post Office within Great Britain or Ireland, for Conveyance by Ships or Vessels other than Packet Boats, addressed to any Person or Place in any Foreign Kingdom or State in which printed Newspapers from Great Britain or Ireland shall not be allowed to pass by the Post free of Postage, it shall be lawful for His Majesty's Postmaster General for the Time being (and such satisfactory Proof shall be laid before him as aforesaid), and his Deputy and Deputies, for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to demand, have, receive, and take, for the Conveyance of every such printed Newspaper to any Foreign Port, the Sum of Two pence; and as to every Newspaper addressed to Great Britain or Ireland, and brought into the United Kingdom by any Ship or Vessel other than a Packet Boat from any Foreign Kingdom or State in which such printed Newspapers shall not be allowed to pass by the Post free of Postage, it is hereby declared, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty's Postmaster General for the Time being (and such satisfactory Proof shall be laid before him as aforesaid), and his Deputy and Deputies, to and for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to demand, have, receive, and take, for the Conveyance of every such Newspaper by the Post, the Sum of Two pence on Delivery thereof to the Person to whom the same shall be addressed, over and above and in addition to any Postage charged thereon by any Foreign Post Office, provided every such Paper be printed and published in the Language of the Kingdom or State from which the same shall be forwarded.

XIX. And whereas Circumstances may arise which may render it expedient again to impose and demand the said respective Rates of Two-pence by the said last mentioned Clause granted, after the same shall have ceased to be demanded by reason of such satisfactory Proof having been laid before the Postmaster General for the Time being as aforesaid; now be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty's Postmaster General for the Time being, by and with the Consent of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, at any Time after such satisfactory Proof shall have been laid before His Majesty's Postmaster General for the Time being as aforesaid, again to impose, demand, and receive the said respective Rates of Two-pence for the Conveyance of any such printed Newspaper to any Foreign Port, and on the Delivery of any such printed Newspaper from any Foreign Kingdom or State, whenever it shall be deemed expedient so to do.

XX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Postmaster General to allow and pay the Masters and Commanders of Ships and Vessels the Sum of One Penny on every printed Newspaper which shall be brought into the United Kingdom under the Provisions of this Act, and be delivered by them at the Post Office of the Post Town at which they shall touch or arrive, and the like Sum of One Penny on every printed Newspaper which shall be delivered by the Postmaster General or his Deputies to any such Masters or Commanders for Conveyance under the Provisions of this present Act.

An Act for the Appointment of convenient Places for the holding of Assizes in Ireland.

[21st August 1835.]

WHEREAS, by a Statute made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of King Richard the Second, it was ordained, that the Justices assigned to take Assizes and deliver the Gaols should hold their Sessions in the principal and chief Towns of every of the Counties where the Shire Courts of the same Counties should be holden; And whereas by a Statute made in the Eleventh Year of the same Reign, reciting so much of the said Statute of the Sixth Year as is herein before recited, and making that the said Statute was in part prejudicial and grievous to the People of divers Counties in England, it was provided that the Chancellor of England for the Time being should have Power thereof to make and provide Remedy, by Advice of the Justices, from Time to Time when Need should be, notwithstanding the said Statute; And whereas the Places at which the Assizes are now held in various Counties of Ireland are inconvenient to the Inhabitants thereof, and it would conduce to the more cheap, speedy, and effectual Administration of Justice to appoint other Places instead thereof for the holding of Assizes; but Doubts may be entertained whether that Object can be fully effected by virtue of the Statutes herein-before referred to: He is therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of each of the said Statutes as relates or may be construed to relate to holding Assizes or Sessions in Ireland shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, and the Privy Council there, to make any Order for changing the Place for holding the Assizes in any County, or for dividing any County, for the Purposes of this

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, entitled An Act for requiring in such several Acts as impose the Necessity of receiving the Oath of the Lord's Supper as a Qualification to certain Offices and Employments, it is enacted that every Person who should thereafter be placed, elected, or chosen in or to the Office of Mayor, Alderman, Recorder, Bailiff, Town Clerk, or Common Councilman, or in or to any Office of Magistracy, or of Peace, Trust, or Employment relating to the Government of any City, Corporation, Borough, or Cinque Port within England and Wales, or the Town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, should, within One Calendar Month next before or upon his Admission into any of the aforesaid Offices or Trusts, make and subscribe the Declaration therein mentioned; and it is thereby further enacted, that if any Person placed, elected, or chosen into any of the aforesaid Offices or Places should omit or neglect to make and subscribe the said Declaration in manner therein mentioned, such placing, Election, or Choice should be void, and that it should not be lawful for such Person to do any Act in the Execution of the Office or Place into which he should be so chosen, elected, or placed; And whereas Doubts have been entertained whether the aforesaid Provisions may be held to extend to Persons elected or chosen to the Office of Sheriff of any City or Town being a County of itself; and it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That no Person who has already been or who shall hereafter be elected or chosen to the Office of Sheriff of any City or Town being a County of itself shall by reason thereof be liable to make or subscribe the aforesaid Declaration within

C A P. XXIX.

An Act for investing in Government Securities a Portion of the Cash lying unemployed in the Bank of England belonging to Bankrupt Estates, and applying the Interest thereon in discharge of the Expenses of the Court of Bankruptcy, and for the Relief of the Debtors in the said Court; and for removing Doubts as to the Extent of the Powers of the Court of Review and of the Subdivision Courts. [21st August 1835.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to establish a Court in Bankruptcy, it was enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to establish a Court of Judicature, which should be called "The Court of Bankruptcy;" and to appoint Judges, Commissioners, and other Officers of the said Court; and that it should be lawful for the Lord Chancellor to choose Official Assignees to act in all Bankruptcies prosecuted in the said Court, and to collect the Effects of Bankrupts, and to pay the Proceeds thereof into the Bank of England to the Credit of the Accountant General of the High Court of Chancery, subject to the Order of the Lord High Chancellor, or the said Fees and Sums of Money thereof, as therein mentioned; and it was further enacted, that certain Fees and Sums of Money specified in the said Act should be received by the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, and paid by him into the Bank of England, to the Credit of the said Accountant General, to an Account to be intituled "The Secretary of Bankrupts Account," and that there should be paid out of the Monies standing to that Account certain yearly Sums specified in the said Act as and for Salaries to the Judges and other Officers of the said Court for the Time being, and it was further enacted by the said Act, that certain Annuities, the Amount thereof to be ascertained and certified as in the said Act is mentioned, should be respectively paid to the Persons for the Execution of the Laws and Statutes concerning Bankrupts, to certain Persons then acting as Commissioners of Bankrupts in London, and to certain Officers of the Lord Chancellor and of the High Court of Chancery mentioned in the said Act, in lieu of and as Compensation for certain Fees and Emoluments accustomed to be received by them, and which would by the Provisions of the said Act be wholly discontinued and abolished, out of the Monies and Securities standing to an Account to be opened by the said Accountant General, to be intituled "The Secretary of Bankrupts Compensation Account;" and that certain Fees and Sums of Money specified by the said Act should be paid by the said Official Assignees into the Bank of England to the Credit of the said Accountant General, to be carried to the said Account respectively. And whereas His Majesty did, by virtue and in pursuance of the said Act, establish the said Court of Bankruptcy, and did appoint Judges and Commissioners and Registrars and Deputy Registrars of the said Court. And whereas Official Assignees have been chosen by the Lord Chancellor to act in Bankruptcies as aforesaid: And whereas the Amount of certain Annuities have been duly ascertained and certified, in pursuance of the said Act, to be due and payable to the Persons therein mentioned, in lieu of the Fees and Emoluments aforesaid. And whereas an Account has been opened in the Bank of England by the said Accountant General, intituled "The Secretary of Bankrupts Account," and another Account has been opened in the Bank of England by the said Accountant General, intituled "The Secretary of Bankrupts Compensation Account:" And whereas the said Official Assignees have paid into the Bank of England in the Name of the said Accountant General divers large Sums of Money, which have been placed to the Credit of the several Bankrupt Estates: And whereas there now is and has been for a long Time a very large Sum of Money belonging to Bankrupt Estates, or to Debtors in Matters of Bankruptcy standing in the Name of the said Accountant General, which lies dead and unemployed in the said Bank of England: And whereas it was necessary for the said Accountant General to appoint certain Persons to act as Clerks in the Performance and Execution of the Duties imposed upon him by the said Act; but no Provision is made by the said Act for the Salaries of the said Clerks and the other Expenses necessarily incident to the Performance of the said Duties, other than out of certain Fees directed to be paid to the Chief Registrar of the said Court: And whereas the Business arising from the Duties imposed upon the said Accountant General by the said Act is gradually increasing, and the present Establishment of Clerks is likely to become inadequate to transact the same with that Accuracy and Dispatch which is necessary for the Public Service: And whereas the Payment of the Fees authorized by the said Act, or a Part thereof, will become unnecessary, and the same may be discontinued if another Fund is provided for the Payments now made out of the said Fees by the Authority of the said Act: So it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That out of the Cash belonging to the Estates of Bankrupts, or to Debtors in Matters of Bankruptcy, that now lies or shall hereafter lie dead and unemployed on Scrutiny in the Bank of England, in the Name of the said Accountant General, or of the Accountant in Bankruptcy hereafter mentioned, any Sum or Sums not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Three hundred thousand Pounds shall and may, by virtue of any Order or Orders of the Lord High Chancellor

II. And whereas the Monies and Securities standing to the Credit of the said Account, intitled "The Secretary of Bankrupts Compensation Account," were in the Month of August One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four found inadequate to meet the several Payments then due and payable thereout, and the Sum of Two thousand four hundred Pounds was, on Application to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, then advanced and paid by them, through the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, into the Bank of England to the Credit of the said Account, for the Purpose of enabling the several Payments then due to be paid and discharged to the Parties entitled thereto; but no Power or Authority exists under the Provisions of the said first-mentioned Act, or otherwise, for the Repayment of such Sum out of the Monies and Securities standing to the Credit of the said Account; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Chancellor to order that the said Sum of Two thousand four hundred Pounds so advanced and paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to the Credit of the said Account, intitled "The Secretary of Bankrupts Compensation Account," shall be repaid out of the Monies and Securities which now are or hereafter may be standing to the Credit of such Account, and the same shall be repayable and repaid accordingly, and until so repaid be considered a Charge on such Account; any thing in the said first-mentioned or other Act or Acts contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Lord Chancellor to appoint
Accountant in Bankruptcy.

III. And whereas from the increased Amount of the Funds belonging to Bankrupts Estates, and the large Number of Accounts to which such Funds belong, and which are daily augmenting, it appears that such Funds and such Accounts cannot be properly protected and managed by the said Accountant General of the High Court of Chancery, and it is expedient therefore that an Officer experienced in and conversant with the Mode of keeping Accounts, to be called "The Accountant in Bankruptcy," shall be forthwith appointed to superintend and control the Care and Management of the said Funds; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Chancellor for the Time being to nominate from Time to Time as Occasion may require some fit and proper Person to be the Accountant in Bankruptcy; which Officer so to be appointed shall hold his Office during good Behaviour, notwithstanding the Demise of His Majesty, or any of His Heirs or Successors: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Lord High Chancellor by any Order to remove any such Officer for some sufficient Reason to be in such Order expressed.

Bankrupt Estate to be incorporated into the Name of the Accountant in

IV. And be it further enacted, That at any Time after the Appointment of the said Accountant in Bankruptcy it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Chancellor, by any general or other Order or Orders, to direct that the Whole or any Part of the Cash, Funds, or Securities belonging to Bankrupts Estates or to Bailors in Matters of Bankruptcy, and then standing in the Name or to the Credit of the said Accountant General of the High Court of Chancery at the Bank of England, to the Credit of any Bankrupt's Estate, or of any Assignee or Assignees of such Estate, or in the Matter of any Bankruptcy, be forthwith paid and transferred into the Name and to the Credit of the said Accountant in Bankruptcy; and all such Payments or Transfers as now are or heretofore have been made into the Bank in the Name or to the Credit of the Accountant General of the High Court of Chancery in Matters of Bankruptcy shall, from and after the Appointment of the said Accountant in Bankruptcy, be made in the Name or to the Credit of the said Accountant in Bankruptcy; and all Cash, Funds, or Securities to be so paid or transferred as aforesaid shall be subject to such and the like Provisions, Regulations, Rules, and Orders as the same now or would have been subject to if paid or transferred in the Name or to the Credit of the said Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, except as the same may be altered by this Act, or any Rule or Order to be made by the Lord High Chancellor in respect of the same.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all Dividends successively aforesaid mentioned, and also any undivided Surplus of a Bankrupt's Estate, over and above the Amount finally directed to be divided amongst the Creditors of any Bankrupt, shall be paid into the Bank of England to the Credit of the Accountant General of the High Court of Chancery, or of the Accountant in Bankruptcy, when such last-mentioned Officer shall have been appointed, to be carried to an Account to be intitled "The Undivided Dividend Account," subject to the Order of the Lord High Chancellor, or of the Court of Exchequer in Bankruptcy, or of any Commissioner of the said Court, for the Payment thereof of any Dividend or Dividends due to any Creditor or Creditors, and subject also to the Order of the Lord

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any Assignee under any Commission of Bankrupt or Part in Bankruptcy now issued or hereafter to be issued shall have, either in his own Hands, or at any Bankers, or otherwise subject to his Order or Disposition, or shall know that there is or are in the Hands or subject to the Order and Disposition of himself and any Co-assignee or Co-assignees, or of any or either of them, any unclaimed Dividend or Dividends amounting in the whole to the Sum of Twenty Pounds, or any such undivided Surplus as aforesaid amounting to the Sum of Twenty Pounds, such Assignee shall, as to any such now existing unclaimed Dividend or Dividends, within One Year after the passing of this Act, and as to any future Dividend or Dividends within Three Calendar Months next after the Expiration of One Year from the Time of the Declaration and Order of Payment of such future Dividend or Dividends, either pay the same to the Creditor or Creditors or other the Person or Persons entitled to the same respectively, or cause a Certificate thereof respectively to be filed in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, containing a full and true Account of the Name or Names of the Creditor or Creditors to whom such unclaimed Dividend or Dividends is or are respectively due, and of the Amount of such Dividend or Dividends respectively, and shall in like Manner, as to any such now existing undivided Surplus as aforesaid, within One Year after the passing of this Act, and as to any such future undivided Surplus as aforesaid within Three Calendar Months next after the Expiration of One Year after the final Declaration of Dividends, cause a Certificate stating the full and true Amount of such Surplus to be filed in the Office of the said Secretary of Bankrupts; and every Certificate to be filed as aforesaid shall be signed by the Assignee or Assignees filing the same; and every Assignee who shall, according to the Provisions of this Act, be bound to file such Certificate as aforesaid, and who shall make default in filing the same, shall be charged, in Account with the Estate of the Bankrupt, with Interest upon the Amount of such unclaimed Dividend or Dividends or undivided Surplus as aforesaid, to be computed from the Time at which such Certificate is hereby required to be filed, at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, for such Time as he shall therewith, either solely or together with any Co-assignee or Co-assignees, or other Person or Persons, retain such Dividend or Dividends or undivided Surplus, as the Case may be, and also with such further Sum as the Lord Chancellor or the Court of Review shall direct, not exceeding to the whole at the Rate of Twenty Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be computed from the Time aforesaid; and every Assignee shall, within One Year next after the filing of any such Certificate as aforesaid, pay or cause to be paid into the Bank of England to the Name of the Accountant General of the High Court of Chancery, or of the Accountant to Bankruptcy, when such last-mentioned Officer shall have been appointed, to be carried to the said Account to be intitled "The Unclaimed Dividend Account," the full Amount of the unclaimed Dividends mentioned in such Certificate, or so much thereof as shall not have been then paid to the Creditor or Creditors or other Person or Persons entitled thereto, and also the full Amount of such undivided Surplus as aforesaid; and if any Assignee shall make default in such Payment it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor or the said Court of Review, or Petition or otherwise, to order that such Sum or Sums be forthwith paid into the Bank of England in manner aforesaid, together with such further Sum to be charged on such Assignee or Assignees, or other Party or Parties personally, as to the said Lord Chancellor or to the said Court may seem fit, not exceeding at and after the Rate of Twenty Pounds per Centum per Annum on the Sum or Sums so withheld, to be computed from the filing of such Certificate up to the Time of Payment of such Sum or Sums, and also to make such further Order as to Costs as the Justice of the Case shall seem to require: Provided always, that no such Certificate as aforesaid of any unclaimed Dividend or Dividends shall be filed until the Expiration of One Year after the Declaration and Order for Payment of such Dividend or Dividends.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Accountant General in Chancery or the said Accountant in Bankruptcy, as the Case may be, shall, on the Application of any Assignee or Assignees, give to him or them a Certificate or Certificates stating the Amount of any Sum or Sums of Money which he or they may be desirous of paying into the Bank of England under the Provisions aforesaid; and on the Production of such last-mentioned Certificate or Certificates the Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall receive the Sum or Sums therein mentioned, and give a Receipt or Receipts for the same, and shall forthwith carry the same to the Credit of the said Accountant General or the Accountant in Bankruptcy, as the Case may be, to the said Account intitled "The Unclaimed Dividend Account;" and every such Certificate and Receipt shall be given without Fee or Reward.

and Company of the Bank of England, by virtue of any Order or Orders of the Lord Chancellor to be made for that Purpose, to the said Accountant in Bankruptcy, such Salary or yearly Sum as the Lord High Chancellor may by any Order or Orders direct, not exceeding the yearly Sum of Eight hundred Pounds, and also to the Clerks of the said Accountant in Bankruptcy such Sums by way of Salary as the Lord Chancellor shall by Order direct, and also any farther Sum to the said Accountant in Bankruptcy which may be necessary or expedient to defray the Expenses of Stationery, and other necessary Expenses of the said Accountant, if any, to be by him recovered in discharge of the Duties imposed upon him by this Act; such several Salaries or yearly Sums before mentioned to be paid quarterly, free of Charges: the first quarterly Payment to the Accountant in Bankruptcy for the Term being to commence from the Day of his Appointment, and as to the said Clerks to commence from the Eleventh Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, or from such other Day as may in any such Order be specified: Provided always, that nothing herein before contained shall authorize the Lord Chancellor to order the Payment in any One Year of any Sum exceeding the Sum of One thousand Pounds for the Payment of the Salaries of the said Clerks, and the Discharge of such Expenses of Stationery and other incidental Expenses as aforesaid.

XII. And he is further enacted, That the Salaries herein-before provided shall be in lieu of all Fees and Emoluments whatsoever; and that all such Fees and Emoluments, whether for Commission, Brokerage, or otherwise, as are now receivable by the said Accountant General of the Court of Chancery in Matters of Bankruptcy, shall, from and after the Appointment of the said Accountant in Bankruptcy, be removed by him, and paid into the Bank in the Name of the said last-mentioned Accountant, and be carried to the Credit of the said Accountant to be intitled "Interest arising from the Bankruptcy Fund Account," and be applicable to all the Purposes of the said Account.

Residing Al-
Charles Elley.

XIII. And whereas Charles Elley, the Chief Clerk in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankruptcy, is now of the Age of Seventy Years and upwards, and has been upwards of Fifty Years in the above Office, and from Rheumatism and other bodily Infirmities is become incapable of giving full Attendance so as effectually to discharge the Duties of the said Office, and the Emoluments of his said Office were very much reduced by the Operation of the said first-recited Act, and the said Charles Elley is desirous to be allowed to retire from the said Office by reason of such Infirmities: he it is therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Chancellor, upon the Retirement or Removal from his said Office of the said Charles Elley, to order and direct that there shall be paid to him during his Life such annual Sum not exceeding Four hundred Pounds per Annum as to the said Lord Chancellor shall seem fit, such annual Sum to commence on the Retirement or Removal of the said Charles Elley as aforesaid, and be payable on such Terms or Times as the said Lord Chancellor shall direct; which said annual Sum shall be chargeable upon and payable out of the said Account intitled "The Secretary of Bankruptcy Compensation Account."

Lord Chancellor may direct Interest
from Securities to be carried to the Secretary of Bankruptcy Account.

XIV. And he is further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Chancellor, by any Order or Orders to be by him from Time to Time made for that Purpose, to order and direct that all or any Part of the Interest and Dividends to be carried to the said Account to be intitled "Interest arising from the Bankruptcy Fund Account" may be carried over to the said Account respectively intitled "The Secretary of Bankruptcy Account" and "The Secretary of Bankruptcy Compensation Account," or either of them, and that the same may be applied in Payment or in part Satisfaction of the annual and other Sums now or hereafter to be chargeable upon and made payable out of the Sums directed to be carried to the said last-mentioned Accounts or either of them, and also to direct that the Salaries and other Sums by the said first-recited Act directed to be chargeable upon or payable out of the Fees by the said Act directed to be paid to the Chief Registrar of the Court of Bankruptcy may be paid out of the said Interest and Dividends, as the said Lord High Chancellor shall in his Discretion see fit, so that the Salaries and other Expenses of the said Court being provided for out of the Interest and Dividends to be raised as aforesaid, the Fees and other Sums by the said Act directed to be paid may be abolished or reduced as the said Lord High Chancellor may see himself from Time to Time enabled to establish or reduce the same.

Salaries to be paid on such Days as the Chancellor shall direct.

XV. And he is further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Lord High Chancellor, by any Order or Orders, to direct that all and every or any of the Salaries by this Act, or the Annuities by way of Compensation by the said first-recited Act, made payable, or any Part of any such Salary or Annuity, shall and may be paid respectively on such Days and by such yearly or other Payments as in the said Order or Orders shall be specified, and in case of the Death, Resignation, or Removal of any of the Officers or Persons entitled to Salaries or Annuities as aforesaid, by the same or other Order or Orders to direct that the Proportion of any Salary or Annuity payable as aforesaid which may become due to any Officer or Person as aforesaid between the Time to which any such Salary or Annuity may have been then last paid or payable and the Time of any such Death, Resignation, or Removal, shall be paid to the said Officer or other Person so resigning or being removed, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, or to the Executors or Administrators of any Officer or other such Person so dying.

XVI. And

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if at any Time hereafter the Whole or any Part of the Money placed out in pursuance of this Act shall be wanted to answer any of the Demands due in respect of the said Bankrupt Estates, then and in such Case the said Lord High Chancellor may and shall direct the Whole or any Part of the Securities in which the same may be pledged to be sold and disposed of, and the Money arising from such Sale to be paid into the Bank of England in the Name of the said Accountant General in Chancery or the Accountant in Bankruptcy, in such Manner as the said Lord Chancellor shall direct, in order that the Demands due in respect of the said Bankrupt Estates may at all Times be fully paid out of the common and general Cash belonging to such Estates.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Chancellor, by any Order or Orders, to authorize the Change of the Securities to be purchased pursuant in this Act, or any Part of the same.

XVIII. And to the end that no Suits or Sutes of the said Court of Bankruptcy may be delayed in payment of any Money due to him, her, or them, but that every one may receive his or her full Demand whomsoever he or she shall apply for the same, in the most easy and expeditious Way; be it enacted, That all the Money and Cash now deposited in the Bank, or that shall at any Time hereafter be paid into or deposited in the Bank, on the Account of Bankrupt Estates or in any Matter of Bankruptcy, shall be and be accounted and taken to be one common and general Cash, and shall be promiscuously issued and available for the answering, paying, and clearing the Debts and Demands thereon.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That out of the Interest and Dividends of the said Government or Post-office Securities to be purchased as aforesaid the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of all Proceedings to be had under this Act shall be paid by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England by virtue of any Order of the said Lord High Chancellor.

XX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if at any Time hereafter the Whole or any Part of the Money to be laid out in pursuance of this Act shall be wanted to answer the Demand of any Bankrupt or their Creditors or other Persons interested therein, and the Stocks, Funds, and Cash then standing in the Name of the said Accountant General in Chancery or the Accountant in Bankruptcy to the several Accounts before mentioned and created by this Act, or either of them, shall not be sufficient to answer and satisfy the said Demands, then the same Money taken for the Purposes and by virtue of this Act shall be and shall be considered a Debt due from the Public, and to such Extent as may be necessary shall be awarded and made good by Parliament accordingly.

XXI. And whereas by the lastly herein-before recited Act it is enacted that there shall be a Chief Judge and Three other Judges of the said Court of Bankruptcy, and that there shall be Two Registrars and Eight Deputy Registrars of the said Court: And whereas a Vacancy having occurred by the Death of One of such Judges, such Vacancy has not been supplied, and it appears that the Duties of the said Court may be effectually performed by the Chief Judge and Two other Judges: be it therefore enacted, That hereafter there shall be only Two Judges of the said Court other than the Chief Judge; and it also appearing that upon the Appointments hereby authorized being made of an Accountant in Bankruptcy, Part of the Duties now performed by the Chief Registrar of the said Court may be discharged by such Accountant, so that the Duties now performed by the Two Registrars and the Two Deputy Registrars not attached to the Commissioners of the said Court may be discharged by Two Registrars and One Deputy Registrar; be it therefore enacted, That as and when any Vacancy may occur by the Death, Removal, or Retirement of any one of the said Registrars, such Vacancy shall be supplied by the Deputy Registrar acting under the Register by whose Death, Removal, or Retirement such Vacancy shall occur; and that when any Vacancy shall occur by the Death, Removal, or Retirement of either of the said Two last-mentioned Deputy Registrars, such Vacancy shall not be supplied so as to provide altogether for more than Two such Registrars and One such Deputy Registrar, other than the Six Deputy Registrars attached to the Commissioners aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the Court of Review, when and as any such Vacancy shall occur, to make such general Orders as to the Duties to be performed by such Registrars and Deputy Registrar as they shall think fit.

XXII. And be it enacted, That within Two Months from the First Day of January in every Year Returns shall be presented to Parliament if then sitting, and if not, then within One Month after Parliament shall have assembled, by the said Accountant General of the Court of Chancery or the Accountant in Bankruptcy (as the Case may be), of the net Amounts at the Credit of the said Accountant on the said First Day of January on each of the following distinct Accounts, which Returns shall respectively specify the Amount transferred and paid out as Dividends, and the Amount paid by Orders of Court or of the Judges, and shall also show the unappropriated Balance then existing on each Account; to-wit, First, The Bankruptcy Fund Account; Second, The Interest arising from the Bankruptcy Fund Account; Third, The Unclaimed Dividend Account; Fourth, The Secretary of Bankrupts Account; Fifth, The Secretary of Bankrupts Composition Account; the Fourth and Fifth of such Accounts to have Appendixes attached to them, detailing all Payments made from such Accounts, and to whom made, and whether in Salaries, Commissions, or other Allowances.

XXIII. And whereas by the said first-recited Act it is enacted, that the Six Commissioners therein mentioned may be formed into Two Subdivision Courts, consisting of Three Commissioners for each Court for the Purposes therein mentioned; and that all References and Adjournments by a single Commissioner to a Subdivision Court by virtue of the said Act shall be to the Subdivision Court to

Power given to Courts to all

as Affidavits.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That the said Court of Review and either of the said Subdivision Courts, and also any Judge or Commissioner of the Court of Bankruptcy, shall have Power to administer Oaths on Affidavits to be sworn before them respectively in Matters of Bankruptcy in all Cases where the same may be administered by a Master in Ordinary or Extraordinary of the High Court of Chancery, and to take for every such Oath, except where such Oath shall be administered to an Affidavit entered in the Court of Bankruptcy or in the Court of Review, the Fee of One Shilling and Sixpence, which said Fee shall be payable and paid accordingly; and that all such Fees shall be accounted for and paid over to the Chief Registrar of the said Court of Bankruptcy, and be carried to the Account of the Second Schedule of Fees annexed to the said first-recited Act, and be applied to the Purpose of the said Schedule.

XXV. And whereas Doubts have been entertained whether, by the Terms of the said first-recited Act, the said Court of Review and Subdivision Courts have been effectually made Courts of Record; and whether the said Courts have upon Examination before them the same Powers of Commitment for the Purpose of enforcing Discovery as were vested in Commissioners of Bankrupt under the Acts of Parliament relating to Bankrupts in force at the Time of the passing of the said first-recited Act; and it is expedient that such Doubts be removed, and that such Powers as are herein after mentioned should be given to the several Judges and Commissioners acting under the Authority of the said first-recited Act; be it enacted, and it is hereby declared, That the said Court of Review and the said several Subdivision Courts respectively shall henceforth be, and shall be deemed and taken from and after the passing of the said first-recited Act to have been, Courts of Record, and shall and may have and exercise all such Powers of Commitment as were vested in Commissioners of Bankrupt acting as such at the Time of the passing of the said first-recited Act, and shall and may have, use, and exercise all the Powers, Rights, Privileges, and Incidents of a Court of Record, as fully to all Intents and Purposes as the same are now, exercised, and enjoyed by any of His Majesty's Courts of Law at Westminster; and all Orders heretofore pronounced and all Acts done by the said Court of Review and Subdivision Courts respectively shall be deemed and taken to have been pronounced and done by the said Courts respectively as Courts of Record; and every Judge or Commissioner appointed or to be appointed by virtue of the said first-recited Act sitting alone and acting in execution of the Duties imposed upon him as such Judge or Commissioner shall have, use, exercise, and enjoy all the Powers, Rights, Privileges, and Exemptions of a Court of Record: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or taken to authorise or empower any such Judge or Commissioner sitting alone to impose any Fine or penalty for a Contempt of Court, but every Contempt of any such Judge or Commissioner sitting alone and acting as aforesaid shall be cognizable by the said Court of Review, to which the same may be referred by any such Judge or Commissioner as aforesaid; and the said Court of Review shall have full Power to deal with the same as a Contempt of the said Court of Review: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or taken to diminish or affect the Power by the said first-recited Act given to any such Judge or Commissioner of committing any Person examined before him to any Messenger or other Officer of the Court of Bankruptcy.

C A P. XXXIII.

An Act for preventing the vexatious Removal of Indictments into the Court of King's Bench; and for extending the Provisions of an Act of the Fifth Year of King William and Queen Mary, for preventing Delays at the Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to other Indictments; and for extending the Provisions of an Act of the Seventh Year of King George the Fourth as to taking Bail in Cases of Felony. [21st August 1835.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to prevent Prosecutors of Indictments and Presentments from vexatiously removing the same out of inferior Courts into His Majesty's Court of King's Bench: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act no Writ of Certiorari shall issue from the Court of King's Bench or Westminster for removing into that Court any Indictment or Presentment from any Court of Session, Assize, Oyer and Terminer, or Goal Delivery, or any other Court, or the Instance of the Prosecutor or any other Person (except His Majesty's Attorney General), without Notice first made in the Court of King's Bench, or before some Judge of that Court, and Leave obtained to remove such Indictment or Presentment, in the same Manner as similar Motions may now be made and Leave given where such Application is made on the Part of Defendants: any Law, Practice, or Usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

II. And whereas it is expedient to extend the Powers of an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of King William the Third and Queen Mary, intitled An Act to prevent Delays of Proceedings at the Quarter Sessions of the Peace; be it therefore enacted, That instead of the Recognizance now by Law required to be entered into before the Allowance of a Writ of Certiorari, every Person indicted or presented in any Court of Session, Assize, Oyer and Terminer, Goal Delivery or any other Court, who shall obtain a Writ of Certiorari for removing any Indictment or Presentment whatever into the Court of King's Bench, not being in Custody for Want of Bail to answer such Indictment or Presentment, shall, before the Allowance of such Writ, enter into a Recognizance before One of His Majesty's Justices of the Court of King's Bench, or before a Justice of the Peace of the County or Place in which the Offence is charged to have been committed, or in which such Person shall reside, in such Sum and with such Sureties as the said Court of King's Bench, or One of His Majesty's Justices of the said Court, shall by Indorsement on the said Writ order and direct; which Recognizance shall contain the same Conditions as are now by the said Act, and another Act passed in the Eighth and Ninth Year of the Reign of King William the Third, intitled An Act to make personal and more effectual an Act, entitled 'An Act to prevent Delays at the Quarter Sessions of the Peace', required in Cases of Indictments removed from the General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace; and thereupon all the Clauses and Provisions contained in the said several Acts with respect to Costs or otherwise shall extend to such last-mentioned Recognizances; and every Person being in Custody for Want of Bail to answer the Charge contained in such Indictment or Presentment shall be detained in Custody until the like Recognizance as aforesaid directed to be entered into (previous to the Allowance of such Writ of Certiorari) shall have been entered into, or until such Person be discharged by due Course of Law.

III. Whereas in many Cases the taking Bail for the Appearance of Persons charged with Felony may be safely admitted without endangering the Appearance of such Persons to take their Trial in due Course of Law, and it is therefore expedient in such Cases to amend and extend the Provisions in this respect of an Act passed in the Seventh Year of King George the Fourth, intitled An Act for amending the Administration of Criminal Justice in England; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Two Justices of the Peace, if they shall think fit, of whom one or other shall have signed the Warrant of Commitment, to admit any Person or Persons charged with Felony, or against whom any Warrant of Commitment for Felony is signed, to Bail, in the Manner and according to the Provisions directed by the said recited Act, in such Sum or Sums of Money and with such Surety or Sureties as they shall think fit, and notwithstanding such Person or Persons shall have conferred the Matter laid to his or their Charge, or notwithstanding such Justice shall not think that such Charge is groundless, or shall think that the Circumstances are such as to raise a Presumption of Guilt.

And whereas the Expenses of the said Office vary, and in some Years may be so great as to leave a very inadequate Sum for the Salary of the Clerk of the Crown; and it is expedient to make Provision for securing to that Officer a proper Remuneration for the responsible Duties performed by him, and for the Payment of the reasonable and necessary Expenses of his Office: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said recited Act by which the yearly Salary of Eight hundred Pounds is granted to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, in full Satisfaction for the Duties of the said Office, and of all Expenses incident to the Performance thereof, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and instead and in lieu thereof there shall be paid to the said Clerk of the Crown for the Time being the yearly Salary of Five hundred Pounds, free and clear from all Deductions on account of the Expenses incident to the Performance of the Duties of the said Office; and the said Salary of Five hundred Pounds shall be issued and payable out of and be charged and chargeable upon the same Fund as the before mentioned yearly Salary of Eight hundred Pounds was directed to be issued out of and made chargeable upon by the said recited Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or any Three or more of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, for the Time being, and he and they is and are hereby required, by Warrant under his or their Hands, to allow to the said Clerk of the Crown, for his Clerks, and for the other incidental and necessary Expenses of his Office, such Sum per Annum as he or they shall deem reasonable and proper; and the Sum so allowed as aforesaid shall be paid and payable out of and be charged and chargeable upon the Fees and Emoluments taken and received in the Office of the said Clerk of the Crown; and the Residue only of the said Fees and Emoluments, after Payment of the said Expenses, shall be paid and payable into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, and be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer, or any Three or more of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, from Time to Time to reduce or increase the Amount to be allowed to the said Clerk of the Crown for such Expenses of his Office as Occasion may be or require.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the said yearly Salary of Five hundred Pounds hereby granted to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, together with such annual Sum as shall be allowed by the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Clerks and other incidental Expenses of the said Office as aforesaid, shall commence on and be payable from the Fifteenth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, when the present Clerk of the Crown was

WHEREAS in consideration of the heavy Losses which have been sustained in the Island of Dominica, in consequence of Hurricanes, it is expedient that immediate Relief should be granted to the Inhabitants of that Island: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or any Three or more of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, for the Time being, by any Warrant or Warrants under his or their Hands, to direct any Sum or Sums not exceeding Twelve thousand Pounds in the whole to be raised and paid out of and charged upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the immediate Relief of the Inhabitants of the said Island of Dominica who have suffered Losses in consequence of the late Hurricanes there; and such Sum or Sums not exceeding Twelve thousand Pounds in the whole shall and may be paid to such Person or Persons at such Time or Times, and in such Proportions, and under such Conditions and Restrictions, as the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall think fit to direct.

XXVII. And he it enacted, That the Examiner of the Chief Remembrancer shall be also Examiner of the said Second Remembrancer, and shall perform all such Duties and possess all such Rights and Powers as Examiner of the said Second Remembrancer as he now performs or possesses as Examiner of the Chief Remembrancer.

XXVIII. And he it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons to whom any Grant in custodiam hath heretofore been made, in his or their own Right, or his or their Representatives or Assigns, to apply to the Court of Eschequer at the Equity Side thereof, by a Petition stating such Grant and his Rights under the same, for an Order for the Appointment of a Receiver over the Lands or other Property granted in custodiam to him, or to apply to the said Court or to the Court of Chancery, as the Case may be, by a like Petition, that any Receiver already appointed over the said Lands or Property, or any of them, be extended to the Matter of his said Petition; and such Court shall thereupon, in case it shall appear that any Sum is due on account of the Demand for which such Grant in custodiam was made, make an Order for appointing or extending a Receiver over the Whole or a competent Part of the Lands or Property granted in custodiam; and such Receiver shall be authorized to apply the Rents and Profits of the said Lands or Property to the Payment of the Debt for which such Grant in custodiam was made, and such other Charges upon the said Lands or Property, and in such Priority as the Court in which such Receiver is appointed may direct.

XXIX. Provided always, and he it enacted, That every such Petition shall be on the filing thereof verified by Affidavit, in which the Petitor claiming the Benefit of the said Grant in custodiam shall state the Sum due upon or under such Grant for Principal, Interest, and Costs, after all just and fair Allowances whatsoever; and the Court shall, notwithstanding such Statement, or the Application of any Person interested in the Lands granted in custodiam, make an Order referring it to the proper Officers of the Court to take an Account of what is due to the Custodee for Principal, Interest, and Costs, charging him with all Sums which shall have been received, or which, without wilful Default or Neglect, might have been received, under or by virtue of the said Grant in custodiam; and if any such Custodee, or his Representatives or Assigns, shall neglect to present such Petition before the Twelfth Day of February next, for the Appointment of a Receiver, or to have a Receiver already appointed extended to the Matter of his Petition, or to verify such Petition, and procure an Order thereon as aforesaid, then and in every such Case the Grant in custodiam of such Custodee shall thereupon cease and be dissolved, and the Lands or other Property extended shall be discharged from the same; provided however, that it shall be lawful for the said Court of Eschequer, if it shall think fit, to extend for a further Period of Three Months the Time for presenting such Petition or obtaining such Order, upon a special Application for that Purpose made.

XXX. And he it enacted, That from and after the promulgating of any absolute Order for appointing or extending a Receiver to the Matter of a Petition founded on a Grant in custodiam obtained before the passing of this Act all further Proceedings in such Custodiam shall be stayed, but the Court of Eschequer shall have Power to make such Order in such Custodian Matter for enforcing the Payment of any Rent due out of the Lands granted in custodiam at the passing of this Act, or the enforcing of any Attachment theretofore awarded, or any Order theretofore made in such Custodian Matter, as Printed image deposited by the University of Southampton Library Digitisation Unit fully XXXII. And be it enacted, That every Receiver so to be appointed as aforesaid shall apply all Sums which he shall receive as such according to such Order or Orders as the Court shall make for that Purpose; and that it shall be lawful for the Court to extend the Receiver from the Matter of the Petition of one Creditor to the Matter of the Petition of any other or others, and to order the Rents and Profits to be applied according to the Priority of each, as ascertained by the Date of the Entry of the Judgment or Enforcement of the Recognizance; and that no Proceeding in the Matter of any Petition under this Act shall determine by the Death of any of the Parties in such Matter, but the Court in which such Petition may have been filed shall and may, on a Motion for that Purpose made by or on behalf of any Person interested in such Proceeding, and on its appearing that any of such Parties has died, make an Order for continuing such Proceedings for and in the Name of or against the real or personal Representative or Representatives, or the Assignee or Assignees of such deceased Party, or the Person or Persons in whom the Interest of the deceased Party has become vested, or who claim the same, unless good Cause shall be shewn to the contrary within some Time to be specified in such Order, and give such Direction for the Service of such Order as the Parties named therein as to the Court shall seem meet, and shall and may make the same absolute, or discharge or vary such Order, as its appearing that such Order was duly served, and on hearing what may be offered on behalf of the Person so served.

An Act to regulate the Admeasurement of the Tonnage and Burthen of the Merchant Shipping of the United Kingdom. [8th September 1835.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for the registering of British Vessels, certain Rules are established for ascertaining the Tonnage of Ships as well on those as afloat, and of Vessels propelled by Steam; and the Account of such Tonnage, whenever the same shall have been ascertained according to the Rules therein prescribed (except in the Case of Ships admeasured afloat), it is thereby enacted shall be deemed the Tonnage of such Ships, and shall be repeated in every subsequent Registry of such Ships, unless any Alteration shall have been made in their Form and Burthen, or unless it be discovered that the Tonnage had been erroneously computed: And whereas it is considered that the Capacity of a Ship is the fittest Standard by which to regulate her Tonnage, that several Measurements will afford the most accurate and convenient Method of ascertaining that Capacity, and that the Adoption of such a Mode of Admeasurement will tend to the Interests of the Ship Builder and the Owner, as well as to the proper Collection of the Duty which by Law are payable on Tonnage; and it is expedient to alter and amend the Law in this respect: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Commencement of this Act so much of the said recited Act as establishes Rules for ascertaining the Tonnage of Ships shall be and the same is hereby repealed so far as respects the Merchant Shipping of the United Kingdom to be thereafter registered.

Rules established by recited Act for ascertaining Tonnage repealed.

The Rule by which Tonnage of Vessels is to be ascertained.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act the Tonnage of every Ship or Vessel required by Law to be registered shall, previous to her being registered, be measured and ascertained while her Hull is afloat, and according to the following Rule; (that is to say,) Divide the Length of the Upper Deck between the Afterpart of the Stern and the Forepart of the Stern post into Six equal Parts, Depths: At the foremast, the middle, and the aftermost of these Points of Division, measure in Feet and Decimal Parts of a Foot the Depths from the under Side of the Upper Deck to the Ceiling at the Lumber Strake. In the Case of a Break in the Upper Deck, the Depths are to be measured from a Line stretched in a Continuation of the Deck. Breadths: Divide each of these Three Depths into Five equal Parts, and measure the Inside Breadth at the following Points; viz. at One Fifth and at Four Fifths from the Upper Deck of the foremast and aftermost Depths, and at Two Fifths and Four Fifths from the Upper Deck of the middle Depth. Length: At Half the middle Depth measure the Length of the Vessel from the Afterpart of the Stern to the Forepart of the Stern-post, then to Twice the middle Depth add the foremast and the aftermost Depths for the Sum of the Depths; add together the upper and lower Breadths at the foremast Division, Three Times the upper Breadth, and the lower Breadth at the middle Division, and the upper and Twice the lower Breadth at the after Division, for the Sum of the Breadths; then multiply the Sum of the Depths by the Sum of the Breadths, and the Product by the Length, and divide the final Product by Three thousand five hundred, which will give the Number of Tons for Register. If the Vessel have a Poop or Half Deck, or a Break in the Upper Deck, measure the Inside Mean Length, Breadth, and Height of such Part thereof as may be included within the Bulk-head; multiply these Three Measurements together, and dividing the Product by 224, the Quotient will be the Number of Tons to be added to the Result as above found. In order to ascertain the Tonnage of open Vessels, the Depths are to be measured from the upper Edge of the upper Strake.

Tonnage to be entered on Register.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Tonnage or Burthen of every Ship belonging to the United Kingdom, ascertained in the Manner herein-before directed, shall, in respect of any such Ship which Printed image deposited by the University of Southampton Library Digitisation Unit shall shall be registered after the Commencement of this Act (except as herein-after excepted), be inserted in the Certificate of the Registry thereof, and be taken and deemed to be the Tonnage or Burthen thereof for all the Purposes of the said recited Act.

IV. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That in each of the several Rules herein-before prescribed, when applied for the Purpose of ascertaining the Tonnage of any Ship or Vessel propelled by Steam, the Tonnage due to the Cubical Contents of the Engine Room shall be deducted from the Total Tonnage of the Vessel as determined by either of the Rules aforesaid, and the Remainder shall be deemed the true Register Tonnage of the said Ship or Vessel. The Tonnage due to the Cubical Contents of the Engine Room shall be determined in the following Manner; that is to say, measure the inside Length of the Engine Room in Feet and Decimal Parts of a Foot from the foremast to the aftermost Bulk-head, then multiply the said Length by the Depth of the Ship or Vessel at the said Ship or Vessel's Draught as aforesaid, and the Product by the inside Breadth at the same Draught as Two Fifths of the Depth from the Deck taken as aforesaid, and divide the last Product by 924, and the Quotient shall be deemed the Tonnage due to the Cubical Contents of the Engine Room.

V. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That the Tonnage due to the Cubical Contents of the Engine Room and also the Length of the Engine Room shall be set forth in the Certificate of Registry as Part of the Description of the Ship or Vessel, and that any Alteration of such Tonnage due to the Cubical Contents of the Engine Room or of such Length of the Engine Room, after Registry, shall be deemed to be an Alteration requiring Registry as aforesaid within the Meaning of the said Act for the registering of Ships or Vessels.

VI. And he it further enacted, That for the Purpose of ascertaining the Tonnage of all such Ships, whether belonging to the United Kingdom or otherwise, as there shall be Occasion to measure while their Cargoes are on board, the following Rule shall be observed and is hereby established: (that is to say,) Measure, first, the Length on the Upper Deck between the Afterpart of the Stern and the Forepart of the Stern-post; secondly, the inside Breadth as the Underwide of the Upper Deck at the middle Point of the Length; and, thirdly, the Depth from the Underwide of the Upper Deck down the Pump-well to the Main-beam; multiply these Three Dimensions together, and divide the Product by One hundred and thirty, and the Quotient will be the Amount of the Register Tonnage of such Ships.

VII. And he it further enacted, That the true Amount of the Register Tonnage of every Merchant Ship or Vessel belonging to the United Kingdom, to be ascertained according to the Rule by this Act established in respect of such Ships, shall be deeply carved or cut in Figures of at least Three Inches in Length on the Main Beam of every such Ship or Vessel, prior to her being registered.

VIII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend to alter the present Measure of Tonnage of any Ship or Vessel which shall have been registered prior to the Commencement of this Act, unless in Cases where the Owners of any such Ships shall request to have their Tonnage established according to the Rule herein-before provided, or unless there shall be Occasion to have any such Ship丈量 again as aforesaid or any Alteration which shall have been made in the Form or Burthen of the same, in which Cases only such Ships shall be re-measured according to the said Rule, and their Tonnage registered accordingly.

IX. And he it further enacted, That this Act shall commence and take effect upon and from the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty six.

X. And he it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

Convention between His Majesty and the King of the French for the more effectual Suppression of the Traffic in Slaves, signed at Paris the Thirtieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one.

The Courts of Great Britain and of France, being desirous of rendering more effectual the Means of Suppression which have hitherto been in force against the criminal Traffic known under the Name of the Slave Trade, they have deemed it expedient to negotiate and conclude a Convention for the Attainment of so salutary an Object, and they have to this End named as their Plenipotentiaries: (that is to say,) His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Right Honourable Vincent Gasselle, Peer of Parliament, Member of the Privy Council, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary at the Court of France; and His Majesty the King of the French the Lieutenant General Count Benoit Sebastian, Grand Cross of the Order of the Legion of Honour, Member of the Chamber of Deputies of the Departments, and Minister and Secretary of State for the Department of Foreign Affairs: who, after having exchanged their full Powers, have found to be in due Form, have signed the following Articles:

Article I.—The mutual Right of Search may be exercised on board the Vessels of each of the Two Nations, but only within the Waters hereinafter described, to-wit,

1<sup>o</sup>. Along the Western Coast of Africa, from Cape Verde to the Distance of Ten Degrees to the South of the Equator; that is to say, from the Tenth Degree of South Latitude to the Fifteenth Degree of North Latitude, and so far as the Thirtieth Degree of West Longitude, reckoning from the Meridian of Paris.

2<sup>o</sup>. All round the Isle of Madagascar to the Extent of Twenty Leagues from that Island.

3<sup>o</sup>. To the same Distance from the Coasts of the Island of Cule.

4<sup>o</sup>. To the same Distance from the Coasts of the Island of Porto Rico.

5<sup>o</sup>. To the same Distance from the Coasts of Brazil.

It is however understood that a suspected Vessel desisted and begun to be chased by the Cruisers within the said Space of Twenty Leagues, may be searched by them beyond those Limits, if, without having ever lost Sight of her, they should only succeed in coming up with her at a greater Distance from the Coast.

Article II.—The Right of searching Merchant Vessels of either of the Two Nations in the Waters hereinafore mentioned shall be exercised only by Ships of War whose Commanders shall have the Rank of Captain or at least that of Lieutenant in the Navy.

Article III.—The Number of Ships to be invested with this Right shall be fixed each Year by a special Agreement; the Number for each Nation need not be the same, but in no Case shall the Number of the Cruisers of the one Nation be more than Double the Number of the Cruisers of the other.

Article IV.—The Names of the Ships and of their Commanders shall be communicated by each of the contracting Governments to the other, and Information shall be reciprocally given of all Changes which may take place in the Cruisers.

Article V.—Instructions shall be drawn up and agreed upon in common by the Two Governments for the Cruisers of both Nations, which Cruisers shall afford to each other mutual Assistance in all Circumstances in which it may be useful that they should act in concert. The Ships of War authorized to exercise the reciprocal Right of Search shall be furnished with a special Authority from each of the Two Governments.

Article VI.—Whenever a Cruiser shall have chased and overtaken a Merchant Vessel as liable to Suspicion, the Commanding Officer, before he proceeds to the Search, shall exhibit to the Captain of the Merchant Vessel the special Orders which confer upon him by Exception the Right to visit her; and in case he shall ascertain the Ship's Papers to be regular, and her Proceedings lawful, he shall certify upon the Log Book of the Vessel that the Search took place only in virtue of the said Orders, these Formalities having been completed, the Vessel shall be at liberty to continue her Course.

Article VII.—The Vessels captured for being engaged in the Slave Trade, or as being suspected of being fitted out for that infamous Traffic, shall, together with their Crews, be delivered over, without Delay, to the Jurisdiction of the Nation to which they shall belong: It is furthermore distinctly understood, that they shall only be judged according to the Laws in force in their respective Countries.

- * Article VIII.—In no Case shall the Right of mutual Search be exercised upon the Ships of War of either Nation.
- * The Two Governments shall agree upon a particular Signal, with which these Cruisers only shall be furnished which are invested with this Right, and which Signal shall not be made known to any other Ship not employed upon this Service.
- * Article IX.—The High Contracting Parties to the present Treaty agree to invite the other Maritime Powers to accede to it within as short a Period as possible.
- * Article X.—The present Convention shall be ratified, and the Ratifications of it shall be exchanged within One Month, or sooner, if it be possible.
- * In Faith of which the Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Convention, and have affixed thereto the Seal of their Arms.

WHEREAS a Treaty was on the Twenty-sixth Day of July in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four concluded between His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, His Majesty the King of the French, and His Majesty the King of Denmark, and signed at Copenhagen, whereby it was agreed as follows:

ARTICLE I.—His Majesty the King of Denmark accedes to the Conventions concluded and signed on the Thirtieth of November One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one and the Twenty-second of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty three, between His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and His Majesty the King of the French, relating to the Suppression of the Slave Trade, as well as to their Annex, excepting the Reservations and Modifications expressed in the Second, Third, and Fourth Articles hereinafter given, which Articles shall be considered additional to the said Conventions and to their Annex, excepting the Differences which necessarily result from the Signature of His Danish Majesty as a Party acceding to these Treaties after their Conclusion:

His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and His Majesty the King of the French accept the said Accession; all the Articles of these Two Conventions, and all the Conditions of their Annex, shall in consequence be held to have been agreed upon, concluded, and signed directly between His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, His Majesty the King of the French, and His Majesty the King of Denmark:

That the said Majesties engage and promise reciprocally to each other to fulfil faithfully all the Clauses, Conditions, and Obligations thereof, excepting the Reservations and Modifications herein stipulated for; and in order to prevent any Uncertainty it has been agreed that the said Conventions, and the Annex containing the Instruction to Cruisers, shall be inserted here Ward for Ward, as follows:

Convention between His Majesty and the King of the French for the more effectual Suppression of the Traffic in Slaves, signed at Paris the Thirtieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one.

The Courts of Great Britain and France, being desirous of rendering more effectual the Means of Suppression which have hitherto been in force against the criminal Traffic known under the Name of the Slave Trade, they have decided it expedient to negotiate and conclude a Convention for the Attainment of so salutary an Object, and they have to that End named as their Plenipotentiaries: (that is to say,) His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland the Right Honourable Viscount Grenville, Peer of Parliament, Member of the Privy Council, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary at the Court of France; and His Majesty the King of the French the Lieutenant General Count Horace Sebastiani, Grand Cross of the Order of the Legion of Honour, Member of the Chamber of Deputies of the Departments, and Minister and Secretary of State for the Department of Foreign Affairs; who, after having exchanged their full Powers, found to be in due form, have signed the following Articles:

ARTICLE I.—The mutual Right of Search may be exercised on board the Vessels of each of the Two Nations, but only within the Waters herein after described, namely,

1°. Along the Western Coast of Africa, from Cape Ford to the Discharge of Ten Degrees to the South of the Equator; that is to say, from the Tenth Degree of South Latitude to the Fifteenth Degree of North Longitude, and as far as the Thirtieth Degree of West Longitude, reckoning from the Meridian of Paris.

2°. All round the Island of Madagascar to the Extent of Twenty Leagues from that Island.

- 3<sup>o</sup>. To the same Distance from the Coasts of the Island of Cuba.
- 4<sup>o</sup>. To the same Distance from the Coasts of the Island of Porto Rico.
- 5<sup>o</sup>. To the same Distance from the Coasts of Brazil.
- It is however understood, that a suspected Vessel desisted and begun to be chased by the Cruisers whilst within the said Space of Twenty Leagues may be searched by them beyond those Limits, if, without having ever lost Sight of her, they should only succeed in coming up with her at a greater Distance from the Coast.
- Article II.—The Right of searching Merchant Vessels of either of the Two Nations in the Waters herein-before mentioned shall be exercised only by Ships of War whose Commanders shall have the Rank of Captain or at least that of Lieutenant in the Navy.
- Article III.—The Number of Ships to be invested with this Right shall be fixed each Year by a special Agreement; the Number of each Nation need not be the same, but in no Case shall the Number of the Cruisers of the one Nation be more than Double the Number of the Cruisers of the other.
- Article IV.—The Names of the Ships and of their Commanders shall be communicated by each of the contracting Governments to the other, and Information shall be reciprocally given of all Changes which may take place in the Cruisers.
- Article V.—Instructions shall be drawn up and agreed upon in common by the Two Governments for the Cruisers of both Nations, which Cruisers shall afford to each other mutual Assistance in all Circumstances in which it may be useful that they should act in concert. The Ships of War authorized to exercise the reciprocal Right of Search shall be furnished with a special Authority from each of the Two Governments.
- Article VI.—Whenever a Cruiser shall have chased and overtaken a Merchant Vessel as liable to Suspicion, the Commanding Officer, before he proceeds to the Search, shall exhibit to the Captain of the Merchant Vessel the special Orders which confer upon her, by Exception to the Right to visit her, and in case he shall ascertain the Ship's Papers to be regular, and her Proceedings lawful, he shall certify upon the Log-book of the Vessel that the Search took place only in virtue of the said Orders; these Formalities having been completed, the Vessel shall be at liberty to continue her Course.
- Article VII.—The Vessels captured for being engaged in the Slave Trade, or as being suspected of being fitted out for that odious Traffic, shall, together with their Crews, be delivered over, without Delay, to the Jurisdiction of the Nation to which they shall belong; it is furthermore distinctly understood, that they shall only be judged according to the Laws in force in their respective Countries.
- Article VIII.—In no case shall the Right of mutual Search be exercised upon the Ships of War of either Nation.
- The Two Governments shall agree upon a particular Signal, with which these Cruisers only shall be furnished which are invested with this Right, and which Signal shall not be made known to any other Ship not employed upon this Service.
- Article IX.—The High Contracting Parties to the present Treaty agree to invite the other Maritime Powers to accede to it within a short Period as possible.
- Article X.—The present Convention shall be ratified, and the Ratifications of it shall be exchanged within One Month, or sooner, if it be possible.
- In Faith of which the Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Convention, and have affixed thereto the Seal of their Arms.

Done at Paris the Thirtieth November One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one.

- Supplementary Convention between His Majesty and the King of the French for the more effectual Suppression of the Traffic in Slaves, signed at Paris the Twentieth second Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty three

• His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and His Majesty the King of the French having felt the Necessity of developing some of the Clauses contained in the Convention which was signed between Their Majesties on the Thirtieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, relating to the Suppression of the Crime of Slave Trade have assented to their Plenipotentiaries for this Purpose: to wit,

• His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland the Right Honourable Grouville Viscount Grouville, Peer of the United Kingdom, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Member of the Privy Council of His Britannic Majesty, and His Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the Court of France; and His Majesty the King of the French His Minister Charles Louis de Blacas, Duc de Angoulême, Peer of France, Knight of the Royal Order of the Legion of Honour, Minister and Secretary of State for the Department of Foreign Affairs; who, after having exchanged their Powers, which have been found in good and due Form, have agreed on the following Articles:

- Article I.—Whenever a Merchant Vessel navigating under the Flag of One of the Two Nations shall have been detained by the Cruisers of the other duly authorized to that Effect, conformably to the Provisions of the Convention of the Thirtieth of November One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, each Merchant Vessel, as also her Master, her Crew, her Cargo, and the Slaves who may be on board, shall be carried in such Places as shall have been appointed by the Contracting Parties respectively, in order that Proceedings may be there instituted respecting them agreeably to the Law of such Country, and they shall be delivered over to the Authorities appointed for that Purpose by the respective Governments.

When the Commander of the Cruiser shall not think proper to take upon himself the carrying in and delivering up the detained Vessel he shall not intrust that Duty to an Officer below the Rank of Lieutenant in the Navy.

Article II.—The Cruisers of the Two Nations authorized to exercise the Right of Visit and Detention in execution of the Convention of the Thirtieth of November One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, shall, in all that relates to the Formalities of the Visit and of the Detention, as well as to the Measures to be taken for delivering up Vessels suspected of being engaged in the Slave Trade to the respective Jurisdictions, conform strictly to the Instructions annexed to the present Convention, and which shall be considered as an integral Part thereof.

The Two High Contracting Parties reserve to themselves the Power of making in their Instructions, by common Consent, any Modifications which Circumstances might render necessary.

Article III.—It is clearly understood that if the Commander of a Cruiser of one of the Two Nations shall have Reason to suspect that a Merchant Vessel navigating under Convey of or in company with a Vessel of War of the other Nation has engaged in the Slave Trade, or has been fitted out for the said Trade, he is to make known his Suspicions to the Commander of the Convey or Vessel of War, who shall proceed close to visit the suspected Vessel, and in case the latter Commander should find that the Suspicion is well founded, he shall cause the Vessel to be taken, together with her Master, her Crew, and her Cargo, and the Slaves who may be on board, into a Port of his own Nation, in order that Proceedings may be instituted with regard to them agreeably to the respective Laws.

Article IV.—As soon as any Merchant Vessel detained and sent before the Tribunals aforesaid shall arrive at one of the Ports respectively pointed out, the Commander of the Cruiser which shall have detained her, or the Officer appointed to bring her in, shall deliver to the Authorities appointed for that Purpose One Copy, signed by him, of all the Lists, Declarations, and other Documents specified in the Implications annexed to the present Convention; and the said Authorities shall in consequence proceed to a Survey of the detained Vessel and her Cargo, and to an Inspection of her Crew, and of the Slaves who may be on board, after having previously given Notice of the Time of such Survey and Inspection to the Commander of the Cruiser, or to the Officer who shall have brought in the Vessel, in order that he, or some Person in his Behalf, may be present thereat.

A Declaration (French verbal) of those Proceedings shall be drawn up in Duplicate, signed by the Persons who shall have acted therein, or been present at the same, and one of the said Declarations shall be delivered to the Commander of the Cruiser, or to the Officer who shall have been appointed to bring in the detained Vessel.

Article V.—The Vessels detained as before mentioned, their Masters, Crews, and Cargoes, shall be forthwith proceeded against before the proper Tribunals in the respective Countries according to the established Forms; and if in consequence of such Proceedings the said Vessel shall be found to have been employed in the Slave Trade, or to have been fitted out for the Purpose thereof, the Master, the Crew, and the Accomplish, as well as the Ship and Cargo, shall be dealt with conformably to the respective Laws of the Two Countries.

In case the said Vessels shall be considered a Portion of the Proceeds arising from their Sale shall be paid into the Hands of the Government to which the Captor belongs, to be distributed among the Officers and Crew of the capturing Ship. This Portion shall be Sixty-five per Centum of the Net Produce of the Sale, in so far as such a Distribution of the Proceeds is consistent with the respective Laws of the Two Countries.

Article VI.—Any Merchant Vessel of either of the Two Nations visited and detained in pursuance of the Convention of the Thirtieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, and of the Provisions hereinafore recited, shall, unless Proof be given to the contrary, be held and taken as being so lawfully engaged in the Slave Trade, or to have been fitted out for the Purposes of such Traffic, if any of the Particulars hereinafter specified shall be found in her Outfit or Equipment, or on board of her; scilicet,

1°. Having her Hatchets fitted with open Gratings, instead of being close Hatchets as usual in Merchant Vessels.

2°. Having more Divisions or Bulk-heads in the Hold or on Deck than necessary for Trading Vessels.

3°. Having on board spare Planks, either loosely fitted in that Shape, or fit for readily laying a Second or movable Deck or Slave Deck.

5°. Having on board a Supply of Water more than sufficient for the Consumption of her Crew as a Merchant Vessel.

6°. Having

6. Having on board an unreasonable Number of Water Casks or other Vessels for holding Water, unless the Master shall produce a Certificate from the Customs House from the Place at which he cleared outward, stating that a sufficient Security had been given by the Owner of such Vessel that such Casks or other Vessels should only be used for the Reception of Palm Oil, or be employed in any other lawful Trade.

7. Having on board a greater Quantity of Fire-tubs or Kils than requisite for the Use of her Crew as a Merchant Vessel.

8. Having on board Two or more Copper Boilers, or even One evidently larger than requisite for the Use of her Crew as a Merchant Vessel.

9. Having on board a Quantity of Rice or Farinha, Flour of the Manioc of Brazil or Cassava, or Maize or Indian Corn, beyond any probable requisite Provision for the Use of her Crew, and such Rice, Flour, Maize or Indian Corn not being entered on the Manifest as Part of the Cargo for Trade.

Article VII.—No Commutation shall in any Case be granted either to the Master or to the Owner, or to any other Person interested in the Equipment or Lading of a Merchant Vessel in which any of the Particulars specified in the preceding Article shall be found, even if the Tribunal should not pronounce any Commutation in consequence of her Detention.

Article VIII.—When a Merchant Vessel of either of the Two Nations shall have been seized and detained illegally or without sufficient Cause of Suspicion, or when the Visit and Detention shall have been attended with any Abuse or vexatious Acts, the Commander of the Cruiser, or the Officer who shall have boarded the said Vessel, or the Officer who shall have been appointed to bring her in, as the Case may be, shall be liable to Costs and Damages to the Master and to the Owners of the Vessel and Cargo.

These Costs and Damages may be awarded by the Tribunal before which the Proceedings against the detained Vessel, her Master, Crew, and Cargo, shall have been instituted, and the Government of the Country to which the Officer who gave Occasion for such Award shall belong shall pay the Amount of the said Costs and Damages within the Period of One Year from the Date of the Award.

Article IX.—If in the Visit or Detention of a Merchant Vessel, made in virtue of the Provisions of the Convention of the Thirtieth November One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, or of the present Convention, any Abuse or Vexation shall have been committed, but the Vessel shall not have been delivered over to the Jurisdiction of her own Nation, the Master of the Vessel shall make a Declaration on Oath of the Abuses or Vexations of which he has to complain, and of the Costs and Damages to which he lays Claim, before the competent Authorities in the first Port of his own Country at which he may arrive, or before the Consular Agent of his Nation, if the Vessel proceeds to a Foreign Port where there is such an Agent; this Declaration shall be confirmed by an Examination under Oath of the principal Persons of the Crew or Passengers who have witnessed the Visit or Detention; and One formal Declaration (Probs verbal) of the whole shall be drawn up, and Two Copies thereof delivered to the Master, who shall forward one of them to his own Government in support of his Claims for Costs and Damages. It is understood that if any compulsory Circumstances should prevent the Master from making his Declaration, it may be made by the Owner, or by any other Person interested in the Vessel or in her Cargo.

On the official Transmission of One Copy of the formal Declaration (Probs verbal) above mentioned, through the Channel of the respective Embassies, the Government of the Country to which the Officer charged with Abuses or Vexations shall belong shall forthwith institute an Inquiry into the Matter; and if the Validity of the Complaint be admitted, the said Government shall cause to be paid to the Master or Owner or to any other Person interested in the Vessel which has been molested, or in her Cargo, the Amount of Costs and Damages which may be due to them.

Article X.—The Two Governments engage reciprocally to communicate each to the other, free of Expence, and upon Application being made, Copies of all the Proceedings instituted and Judgments given relative to Vessels visited or detained in execution of the Provision of the Convention of the Thirtieth November One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, and of the present Convention.
